E F A C E.

HE innumerable mischiefs which have arisen from bigotry, an immoderate attachment to particular opinions or modes of worship have been observed and lamented in all ages, by men of a calm and loving spirit. O when will it be banished from the face of the earth! When will all who sincerely fear God, employ their zeal, not upon ceremonies and notions, but upon justice, mercy, and the love of God!

- 2. The ease and happiness that attend, the unspeakable advantages that slow from a truly catholic spirit, a spirit of universal love (which is the very reverse of bigotry) one would imagine, might recommend this amiable temper to every person of cool restection. And who that has tasted of this happiness can refrain from wishing it to all mankind? Who that has experienced the comfort, the solid satisfaction of an heart color toward all men, and in a heart color love God and the Lord Jesu Christ in sneerily can avoid earnestly desiring, that all men may be partakers of the same comfort?
- 3. It is with unspeakable joy, that these observe the spirit of bigotry greatly declining, (at least in every A 2 protestant nation of Europe) and the spirit of love proportionably increasing. Men of every opinion and denomination now begin to bear with each other. They seem weary of tearing each other to pieces on account of small and unessential differences: and rather desire to build up each other, in the great point wherein they all agree, the faith which worketh by love, and produces in them the mind which was in Christ Jesus.

4. It is hoped, the enfuing collection of hymns may in Some measure contribute, through the bleffing of Goo, to advance this glorious end, to promote this spirit of free love, not confined to any opinion or party. There is not an hymn, not one verfe inferted here, but what relates to the common falvation; and what every ferious and unprejudiced Christian, of whatever denomination may join in. It is true, none but those who either already experience the kingdom of God within them, or at least earneftly defire fo to do, will either relish or understand them. But all these may find herein either such prayers, as Speak the language of their souls when they are in heaviness; or such thanksgivings as express, in a low degree, what they feel, when rejoicing with jay unspeakable. Come then all ye children of the Most High, and let us magnify his name together : And let us with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of LORD JESUS CHREST.

HYMN I.

ISAIAH, Iv, Ver. 1, &c

- O! every one that thirsts, draw nigh,
 ('Tis God invites the fallen race)
 Mercy and free salvation buy,
 Buy wine, and milk, and gospel grace.
- 2 Come to the living waters, come, Sinners obey your Maker's call, Return, ye weary wand rers, home, And find my grace reach'd out to all.
- See from the rock a fountain rife?

 For you in healing streams it rolls:

 Money ye need not bring, nor price,

 Ye lab'ring, burthen'd, fin-fick souls.
- Leave all you have, and are, behind;
 Frankly the gift of God receive.
 Pardon and peace in Jesus find.
- Why feek ye that which is not bread, Nor can your hungry fouls fustain? On ashes, husks, and air ye feed, Ye spend your little all in vain.

- Ye toil with unavailing strife:
 Whither, ah! whither would you go.
 I have the words of endless life.
- 7 Hearken to me with earnest care,
 And freely eat substantial food,
 The sweetness of my mercies share,
 And taste that I alone am good.
- My promifes for finners free:

 Come taste the manna of my love,

 And let your soul delight in me.
- My words believingly receive, Quicken'd your foul by faith divine, An everlasting life shall live.

HYMN II.

A Prayer for one convinced of fin.

- The ATHER of lights, from whom proceeds, Whate'er thy ev'ry creature needs, Whose goodness providently nigh, Feeds the young ravens when they cry.:

 To thee I look; my heart prepare;

 Suggest and hearten to my prayer.
- 2 Since by thy light myfelf I fee
 Naked, and poor, and void of thee,
 Thine eyes must all my thoughts survey,
 Preventing what my lips would say:
 Thou feest my wants: for help they call,
 And e'er I speak, thou know'st them all.
- 3 Thou know'st the baseness of my mind, Wayward, and impotent, and blind;

Thou know'lt how unfubdu'd my will; Averse to good and prone to ill: Thou know'st how wide my passions rove, Nor check'd by sear, nor charm'd by love.

- And feel the indigence I fee:
 Fain would I all my vileness own,
 And deep beneath the burthen groan;
 Abhor the pride that lurks within,
 Detest and loath myself and fin.
- Ah! give me, Lord, myself to seel,
 My total misery reveal;
 Ah! give me, Lord, (I still would say)
 An heart to mourn, an heart to pray,
 My business this, my chiefest care,
 My life, my every breath be prayer.
- 6 Scarce I begin my fad complaint,
 When all my warmest wishes faint:
 Hardly I lift my weeping eye,
 When all my kindling ardours die:
 Nor hopes nor fears my bosom move,
 For still I cannot, cannot love.
- Father, I want a thankful heart,
 I want to taste how good thou art,
 To plunge me in thy mercy's sea,
 And comprehend thy love to me;
 The length and breadth, and depth and heighth,
 Of love divinely infinite.
- 8 Father I long my foul to raife,
 And dwell for ever on thy praife,
 Thy praife with glorious joy to tell,
 In extafy unspeakable;
 While the full power of faith I know,
 And reign triumphant here below.

H Y M N III.

Divine Love.

- HOU hidden love of God, whose height,
 Whose depth unsathom'd no man knows;
 I tee from far thy beauteous light,
 Inly I figh for thy repose:
 My heart is pain'd, nor can it be
 At rest, 'till it finds rest in thee.
- The fweetness of thy yoke to prove:
 And fain I would: but tho' my will
 Seems fix'd, yet wide my passions rove;
 Yet hindrances strew all the way;
 I aim at thee, yet from thee stray.
- 3 'Tis mercy all, that thou hast brought
 My mind to seek her peace in thee;
 Yet while I seek, but find thee not,
 No peace my wand'ring soul shall see;
 O when shall all my wand'rings end,
 And all my steps to thee-ward tend!
- 4 Is there a thing beneath the fun,

 That strives with thee my heart to share?

 Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone,

 The Lord of ev'ry motion there:

 Then shall my heart from earth be free,

 When it hath found repose in thee.
- O hide this felf from me, that I
 No more, but Christ in me may live;
 My vile affections crucify,
 Nor let one darling lust furvive;
 In all things nothing may I see,
 Nothing defire or seek but thee.

- O love, thy fov'reign aid impart,
 To fave me from low-thoughted care:
 Chase this self-will thro' all my heart,
 Thro' all its latent mazes there:
 Make me thy duteous child that I
 Ceaseless may Abba, Father, cry!
 - 7 Ah no! ne'er will I backward turn:

 'Thine wholly, thine alone I am!

 Thrice happy he who views with fcorn

 Earth's toys, for thee his constant stame;

 O help that I may never move

 From the blest footsteps of thy love!
 - My heart that lowly waits thy call:
 Speak to my inmost foul and fay,
 I am thy love, thy God, thy all!
 To feel thy power, to hear thy voice,
 To taste thy love, be all my choice.

HYMN IV.

The means of grace.

- SUFFICE for me that thou my Lord,
 Haft bid me fast and pray;
 Thy will be done, thy name ador'd
 'Tis only mine t'obey.
- Thou bidst me search the sacred leaves,
 And taste the hallow'd bread:
 The kind command my soul receives,
 And longs on thee to seed.
- 3 Still for thy loving-kindness, Lord,
 I in thy temple wait:
 I long to find thee in thy word,
 Or at thy table meet.
- Here in thine own appointed ways
 I wait to learn thy will;

Silent I stand before thy face, And hear thee fay, Be fill!

- To feel the virtue of thy blood,
 And spread its praise below.
- 6 I wait my vigour to renew, Thine image to retrieve, The veil of outward things pass thro' And gasp in thee to live.
- 7 I work, and own the labour vain:
 And thus from works I cease;
 I strive, and see my fruitless pain:
 'Till God create my peace.
- 8 Fruitless, 'till thou thyself impart, Must all my efforts prove; They cannot change a finful heart, They cannot purchase love.
- And then the strife give o'er,

 To thee I then the whole resign,

 I trust in means no more.
- The Father's wrath and me;

 Jefu, thou great eternal mean,

 I look for all from thee.

HYMN V.

A passion bymn.

The man of griefs condemn'd for you!

The Lamb of God for finners flain,

Weeping to Calvary pursue.

- While to the bloody pillar bound;
 The plowers make long furrows there,
 Till all his body is one wound,
- Must fully glut their utmost rage:

 Hark, how they clamour for his blood!
- Against his God the creature calls:

 Accus'd and sentenc'd by the breath
 Himself inspir'd, their Maker falls:

 The Lord of life, is doomed to death.
- With Nails they fasten to the wood;
 His facred limbs—expos'd and bare,
 Or only cover'd with his blood!
- 6 See there! his temples crown'd with thorns!

 His bleeding hands extended wide!

 His streaming feet, transfix'd and torn!

 The fountain gushing from his side!
- 7 Where is the king of glory now?

 The everlasting Son of God?

 Th' Immortal hangs his languid brow,

 Th' Almighty faints beneath his load!
- Beneath my load he faints and dies!

 I fill'd his foul with pangs unknown,
 I caus'd these mortal groans and cries,
 I kill'd the Father's only Son.

Part the Second.

Thou dear fuffring Son of God,
How doth thy heart to finners move!
Help me to catch thy precious blood,
Help me to taste thy dying love.

- One drop of thy fad cup afford:

 I fain with thee would fympathize,
 And share the suff rings of my Lord,
- Convuls'd while her Creator dy'd;
 O let mine inmost nature shake,
 And die with Jesus crucify'd.
- Their horrors to the upper fkies;
 O that my foul might burst the shade,
 And quickened by my death arise.
- And tremble, and afunder part;
 O rend with thy expiring breath
 The harder marble of my heart.
- Thou wilt, I trust, the veil remove,
 My inmost bowels shall relent
 The yearnings of thy dying love.
- Thy grace I furely shall receive,
 Thy death hath bought the grace for me:
 This is my whole desire to live,
 To live, and then to die, in thee.

HYMN VI.

Looking unto Jesus.

REGARDLESS now of things below,
Jefus to thee my heart afpires,
Determin'd thee alone to know,
Author and end of my defires:
Fill me with righteousness divine;
To end, as to begin, is thine.

- What is a worthless worm to thee?

 What is in man thy grace to move?

 That still thou seekest those who see

 The arms of thy pursuing love:

 That still thy inmost bowels cry,

 Why, sinner, wilt thou perish—why?
- Ah! shew me Lord, my depth of sin,
 Ah! Lord thy depth of mercy shew
 End, Jesus, end this war within:
 No rest my spirit e'er shall know,
 'Till thou thy quickening influence give,
 Breathe, Lord, and these dry bones shall live.
- There, there before the throne thou art,
 The Lambe're earth's foundation flain;
 Take thou, O take this guilty heart;
 Thy blood will wash out every stain;
 No cross, no suffering, I decline,
 Only let all my heart be thine.

HYMN VII.

The Same.

- TESUS in whom the weary find
 Their late, but permanent repose,
 Physician of the fin-fick mind,
 Relieve my wants, assuage my woes,
 And let my soul on thee be cast,
 'Till life's fierce tyranny is past.
- Loof'd from my God, and far remov'd,
 Long have I wander'd to and fro,
 O'er earth in endless circles rov'd,
 Nor found whereon to rest below;
 Back to my God at last I sty,
 For O! the waters still are high.

- The things of earth for thee I leave:
 Put forth thine hand, thine hand of grace,
 Into the ark of love receive;
 Take this poor flutt'ring foul to rest,
 And lodge it, Saviour, in thy breast.
- Fill with inviolable peace,
 Stablish and keep my settled heart;
 In thee may all my wandrings cease,
 From thee no more may I depart,
 Thine utmost goodness call'd to prove,
 Lov'd with an everlasting love.

H Y M N - VIII.

Wretched, and miferable, and poor, and blind, and naked

- Ever grasping after rest,

 I cannot find it nigh:

 Naked, sick, and poor, and blind,

 Fast bound in sin and misery,

 Friend of sinners let me find

 My help, my all in thee.
 - Who my mifery can relate,
 My depth of woe reveal?
 I have left my first estate,
 In hapless Adam fell:
 Driven out of mine abode.
 I now have lost my perfect bliss,
 Fallen, fallen out of God,
 And banish'd paradise.
 - I am all unclean, unclean,
 Thy purity I want,
 My whole heart is fick of fin,
 And my whole head is faint;

Full of putrifying fores,

Of bruifes, and of wounds, my foul

Looks to Jesus, help implores,

And gasps to be made whole.

In the wilderness I stray,
My foolish heart is blind,
Nothing do I know; the way,
Of peace I cannot find:
Jesus, Lord, restore my sight,
And take, O take the veil away,
Turn my darkness into light,
My midnight into day.

Part the fecond.

- Forfaken and alone,
 Unrenew'd and unrestor'd,
 I have not thee put on;
 Over me thy mantle spread,
 Send down thy likeness from above,
 Let thy goodness be display'd,
 And wrap me in thy love.
- 6 Poor, alas! thou know'st I am,
 And would be poorer still,
 See my nakedness and shame,
 And all my vileness feel:
 No good thing in me resides,
 My foul is all an aching void,
 'Till thy spirit here abides,
 And I am sill'd with God.
- Jefu, full of truth and grace,
 In thee is all I want;
 Be the wand'rers resting place
 A cordial to the faint;
 Make me rich, for I am poor,
 In thee may I my Eden sind;
 To the dying, health restore,
 And eye-sight to the blind.

8 Clothe me with thy holiness,
Thy meek humility;
Put me on thy glorious dress,
Endue my foul with thee;
Let thine image be restor'd,
Thy name and nature let me prove,
With thy fulness fill me, Lord,
And perfect me in love.

HYMN IX.

A prayer to Christ.

I AMB of God, for finners flain,
To thee I feebly pray,
Heal me of my grief and pain,
O take my fins away!
From this bondage, Lord release,
No longer let me be opprest;
Jesus, Master, seal my peace,
And take me to thy breast.

Who grown beneath their fine.
Weary I obey thy call,
And come to be made clean:
Give my burthen'd conscience ease,
O grant me now the promis'd rett;
Jesus, Master, seal my peace,
And take me to thy breast.

Wilt thou cast a sinner out,
Who humbly comes to thee?
No my God I cannot doubt,
Thy mercy is for me:
Let me then obtain the grace,
And be of paradise posses:
Jesus, Master, seal my peace,
And take me to thy breast.

- Worldly good I do not want,
 Be that to others given:
 Only for thy love I pant,
 My all in earth and heaven:
 This the crown I fain would feize,
 The good wherewith I would be bleft:
 Jefus, Master, seal my peace,
 And take me to thy breast.
- And then refign my breath,
 Join the happy few, whose love
 Was mightier than death:
 Let it not my Lord displease,
 That I would die to be thy guest:
 Jesus, Master, seal my peace,
 And take me to thy breast.

HYMN X.

Fear not, only believe!

- The day of liberty draws near;
 Jesus who on the serpent treads,
 Shall soon in your behalf appear;
 The Lord shall to his temple come,
 Prepare your hearts to make him room.
- In tin we were conceiv'd and born;
 Plung'd in the depth of mifery,
 We never can to thee return,
 'Till thou our fallen fouls convert,
 And give the new believing heart.
- 3: Now if thou canst with-hold thy grace
 From sinners, hungry, mournful, poor,
 Who ask thy love, who seek thy face,
 Who ever knock at mercy's door;

At Jesu's feet who humbly lie, Resolv'd at Jesu's feet to die.

- Yes, Lord, we must believe thee kind,
 how never can't unfaithful prove;
 Surely we shall thy mercy find,
 Who ask, shall all receive thy love:
 Nor canst thou it to me deny,
 I ask, the chief of sinners I.
- Your down-cast hands and eyes lift up.
 Ye shall not be forgotten long,
 Hope to the end, in Jesus hope;
 Tell him, ye wait his grace to prove,
 And cannot fail, if God is love.
- 6 Pris'ners of hope, be strong, be bold,
 Cast off your doubts, disdain to fear,
 Dare to believe, on Christ lay hold,
 Wrestle with Christ in mighty pray'r;
 Tell him,—"We will not let thee go,
 "'Till we thy name, thy nature know."

HYMN XI.

MATT v. 3, &c. Bleffed are the poor in Spirits.

- JESU, if still the same thou art,
 If all thy promises are sure,
 Set up thy kingdom in my heart,
 And make me rich for I am poor:
 To me be all thy treasures given,
 The kingdom of an inward heaven.
- And lo! for thee I ever mourn:

 I cannot; no, I will not rest,

 'Till thou, mine only rest, return:

 'Till thou, the Prince of Peace appear,

 And I receive the Comforter.

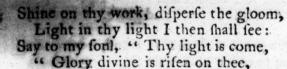

On all that hunger after thee!

Thunger now, I thirst for God;

See the poor fainting sinner, see;

And satisfy with endless peace,

And fill me with thy righteousness.

"Thy warfare's past, thy mourning's o'er, Look up, for thou shalt weep no more."

And trust thou wilt not long delay,
Hungry and forrowful, and poor;
Upon thy word myself I stay!
Into thy hands my all resign,
And wait till all thou art is mine.

H Y M N XII.

In Temptation.

JESU, lover of my foul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the nearer waters roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
'Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my foul at last.

Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helples foul on thee:
Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on thee is stay'd,
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenceles head
With the shadow of thy wing,

More than all in thee I find:
Raife the fallen, chear the faint,
Heal the fick, and lead the blind,
Just and holy is thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
False, and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to cover all my fin:
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within;
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee:
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

H Y M N XIII.

He Shall fave his people from their fins.

- JESUS, in whom the Godhead's rays,
 Beam forth with milder majefty:
 I fee thee full of truth and grace,
 And come for all I want to thee.
- Wrathful, impure, and proud I am, Nor constancy nor strength I have; But thou, O Lord art still the same, And hast not lost thy power to save.
- Jefu, thine humble felf impart;
 O let thy mind within me dwell!
 O give me lowliness of heart!
- Thy ipotless purity bestow;
 Touch me, and make the leper clean,
 Wash me, and I am white as snow.

- O why should it be found in thine, Sprinkle me, Saviour, with thy blood, And all thy gentleness is mine.
 - Meek, and dispassionate, and mild,
 The leopard finks into a lamb,
 And I become a little child.

H Y M N XIV.

A Prayer to Christ.

- Thirst, thou wounded Lamb of God, To wash me in thy cleansing blood, To dwell within thy wounds; then pain Is sweet, and life or death is gain.
- Take this poor heart and let it be For ever clos'd to all but thee!
 Seal thou my breast and let me wear That pledge of love for ever there.
- How bleft are they, who find abide, Close shelter'd in thy bleeding side! Who life and strength from thence derive, And by thee move, and in thee live.
- What are our works, but fin and death,
 'Till thou thy quick'ning spirit breathe?
 Thou giv'it the power thy grace to move:
 O wond'rous grace! O boundless love!
- That thou should'st us to glory bring:
 Make slaves the partners of thy throne,
 Deck'd with a never-fading crown?
- 6 Hence our hearts melt, our eyes o'erflow. Our words are lost: nor will we know.

Nor will we think of ought beside My Lord, my love is crucify'd!

- 7 Ah! Lord, enlarge our scanty thought,
 To know the wonders thou hast wrought!
 Unloose our stamm'ring tongues to tell
 Thy love immense, unsearchable.
- First-born of many brethren, thou;
 To thee, lo! all our fouls we bow,
 To thee our hands and hearts we give,
 Thine may we die, thine may we live!

H Y M N XV.

These things were written for our Instruction.

- JESU, if still thou art to-day
 As yesterday the same,
 Present to heal, in me display,
 The virtue of thy name.
- If still thou go'st about to do
 Thy needy creatures good;
 On me, that I thy praise may shew,
 Be all thy wonders shew'd.
- Now, Lord, to whom for help I call,
 Thy miracles repeat;
 With pitying eyes behold me fall
 A leper at thy feet.
- Loathsome, and foul, and felf-abhorr'd,
 I fink beneath my fin;
 But if thou wilt, a gracious word
 Of thine, can make me clean.
- Thou feest me deaf to thy commands,
 Open, O Lord mine ear;
 Bid me stretch out my wither'd hands,
 And lift them up in prayer.

- 6 Silent, (alas! thou know'st how long;)
 My voice I cannot raise:
 But O! when thou shalt loose my tongue,
 The dumb shall sing thy praise.
 - 7 Lame at the pool I still am found:
 Give, and my strength employ;
 Light as an hart I then shall bound,
 The lame shall leap for joy.
 - 8 Blind from my birth to guilt and thee,
 And dark I am within:
 The love of God I cannot fee,
 The finfulness of fin.
 - O let me find thee near!

 Jefu, in mercy hear my cry,

 Thou fon of David hear!
 - For thee the heav'nly light;
 Command me to be brought, and fay,
 Sinner receive thy fight!

Part the fecond.

- Thy quick'ning spirit give;
 Call me, thou son of God, that I,
 May hear thy voice and live.
- My weak distemper'd foul,

 Thy love compassionately sees,

 O let it make me whole.
- By legion lust possest,
 Son of the living God, draw nigh,
 And speak me into rest.

- Cast out thy foes, and let them still
 To Jesu's name submit;
 Clothe with thy righteousness, and heal,
 And place me at thy feet.
- A trembling homage pay,
 O let my stubborn spirit bow,
 My stiff-neck'd will obey.
- And fick, and poor I am:
 But fure a remedy to find
 For all in Jefu's name.
- I know in thee all fulness dwells, And all for wretched man; Fill ev'ry want my spirit feels, And break off ev'ry chain.
- 18 If thou impart thyfelf to me,
 No other good I need:
 If thou the Son shalt make me free,
 I shall be free indeed.
- I cannot rest 'till in thy blood
 I full redemption have:
 But thou, thro' whom I come to God,
 Canst to the utmost save.
- Thou wilt redeem my foul;
 Lord, I believe, and not in vain;
 My faith shall make me whole,
- I too with thee shall walk in white;
 With all thy saints shall prove,
 What is the length, and breadth, and height,
 And depth of Jesu's love.

H Y M N XVI.

A Sinner's Prayer,

OD of my falvation, hear,
And help me to believe;
Simply do I now draw near,
Thy bleffing to receive;
Full of guilt, alas! I am,
But to thy wounds for refuge flee;
Friend of finners, spotless Lamb,
Thy blood was shed for me.

To thee I lift mine eye,
Balm of all my grief and pain,
Thy blood is always nigh:
Now as yesterday the same
Thou art, and wilt for ever be:
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb,
Thy blood was shed for me.

Nothing have I, Lord, to pay,
Nor can thy grace procure,
Empty fend me not away,
For I, thou know'st am poor;
Dust and ashes is my name,
My all is fin and misery,
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb,
Thy blood was shed for me.

A No good word, or work, or thought,
Bring I to buy thy grace:
Pardon I accept unbought,
Thy proffer I embrace;
Coming as at first I came,
To take and not bestow on thee:
Friend of finners, spotless Lamb,
Thy blood was shed for me.

I never will depart,
Here will I my spirit hide,
When I am poor in heart:
'Till my place above I claim,
This only shall be all my plea,
Friend of sinners, spotless Lamb,
Thy blood was shed for me.

H Y M N XVII.

Another.

- That I shall find my all in Thee,
 The fulness of thy promise prove,
 The seal of thine eternal love?
- 2 A poor, blind child I wander here, If haply I may feel thee near; O dark, dark, dark, (I still must say) Amidst the blaze of Gospel-day!
- Thee, only thee I fain would find, And cast the world and sless behind; Thou, only thou to me be given, Of all thou hast in earth and heaven.
- When from the arm of flesh set free, Jesu, my soul shall fly to thee; Jesu, when I have lost my ail, My soul shall on thy bosom fall.
- Whom man forfakes, Thou wilt not leave Ready the outcasts to receive, Tho' all my simpleness I own: And all my faults to thee are known.
- Ah! wherefore did I ever doubt?
 Thou wilt in no wife cast me out,

An helpless foul that comes to thee.
With only fin and misery.

- I Lord, I am fick: my fickness cure:
 I want; do thou enrich the poor:
 Under thy mighty hand I stoop,
 O lift the abject finner up,
- 8 Lord, I am blind; be thou my fight: Lord, I am weak; be thou my might: An helper of the helples be, And let me find my all in thee.

H Y M N XVIII.

Another.

- Only thou the way canst shew,
 Thou can't save me in this hour,
 I have neither will nor power;
 God if over all thou art,
 Greater than the finful heart,
 Let it now on me be shown,
 Take away the heart of stone.
- 2 Take away my darling fin,
 Make me willing to be clean,
 Make me willing to receive
 What thy goodness waits to give:
 Force me Lord, with all to part,
 Tear these idols from my heart,
 All thy power on me be shewn,
 Take away the heart of stone.
- Jesu, mighty to renew,
 Work in me to will and do,
 Turn my nature's rapid tide
 Stem the torrent of my pride:

Stop the whirlwind of my will, Speak, and bid the fun stand still, Now thy love almighty shew, Make ev'n me a creature new.

Arm of God thy strength put on,
Bow the heavens and come down:
All mine unbelief o'erthrow,
Lay th' aspiring mountain low:
Conquer thy worst foe in me,
Get thyself the victory,
Save the vilest of the race,
Force me to be sav'd by grace.

H Y M N XIX.

Make me a clean beart, O God, Pfal. li, 101.

- An heart from fin fet free,

 An heart that always feels thy blood,

 So freely spilt for me.
- An heart refign'd, fubmissive, meek,
 My dear Redeemer's throne,
 Where only Christ is heard to speak,
 Where Jesus reigns alone:
- 3 An humble, lowly, contrite heart, Believing, true, and clean, Which neither life nor death can part From him that dwells within.
- An heart in ev'ry thought renew'd,
 And fill'd with love divine,
 Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
 A copy, Lord, of thine.
- Thy tender heart is still the same,
 And melts at human woe!

 Jesu, for thee distrest I am,
 I want thy love to know.

- 6 My heart thou know'st can never rest,
 Till thou create my peace,
 Till of mine Eden repossest,
 From self, and sin I cease.
- 7 Fruit of thy gracious lips, on me Bestow the peace unknown, The hidden Manna, and the tree Of life, and the white stone.
- 8 Thy nature, gracious Lord impart
 Come quickly from above,
 Write thy new name upon my heart,
 Thy new best name of love.

HYMN XX.

Longing for Christ.

- Thou, whom fain my foul would love,
 Whom I would gladly die to know;
 This veil of unbelief remove,
 And shew me all thy goodness, shew:
 Jesu, thyself in me reveal,
 Tell me thy name, thy nature tell.
- Yet thee, my Lord, have I not known?
 I claim thee with a faultring tongue,
 I pray thee with a feeble groan:
 Tell me, O tell me who thou art,
 And speak thy name into my heart.
- With fuch an abject worm as me, With fuch an abject worm as me, Thy mysteries of grace display,

 Open mine eyes that I may see 5.

 That I may understand thy word:

 And now cry out, It is the Lord!

H Y M N XXI.

The Refignation.

And may I still draw near ?

And may I still draw near ?

Then listen to the plaintive found

Of a poor finner's prayer.

Jesu, thine aid afford,

If still the same thou art:

To thee I look, to thee, my Lord,

List up an helples heart.

When shall thy love constraint
And force me to thy breast?
When shall my soul return again.
To her eternal rest?
Ah what avails my strife,
My wand'ring to and fro?
Thou hast the words of endless life,
Ah! whither should I go?

Thy condescending grace:
To me did freely move:
It calls me still to seek thy face,
And stoops to ask my love:
Lord, at thy feet I fall,
I groan to be set free.
I fain would now obey the call,
And give up all for thee.

To rescue me from woe,

Thou didst with all things part.

Didst lead a suffering life below,.

To gain my worthless heart:

My worthless heart to gain,

The God of all that breathe.

Was found in fashion as a man,

And died a cursed death.

Part the frond.

My little all to give?

To tear my foul from earth away,

For Jefus to receive?

Nay, but I yield, I yield!

I can hold out no more:

I fink by dying love compell'd,

And own thee conqueror.

Tho' late I all forfake,
My friends, my all refign:
Gracious Redeemer, take, O take,
And feal me ever thine.
Come, and possess me whole,
Nor hence again remove:
Settle and fix my wav'ring foul
With all thy weight of love.

My one defire be this,

Thy only love to know,

To feek and taste no other bliss,

No other good below.

My life, my portion thou,

Thou all-sufficient art;

My hope, my heavenly treasure, now
Enter and keep my heart.

Rather than let it burn
For earth, O quench its heat:
Then, when it would to earth return,
O let it cease to beat.
Snatch me from ill to come,
When I from thee would fly,
O take my wand'ring spirit home,
And grant me then to die.

H Y M N XXII.

The fame.

- That my load of fin were gone!
 O that I could at last submit
 At Jesu's feet to lay it down.
 To lay my soul at Jesu's feet!
- When shall mine eyes behold the Lamb,
 The God of my falvation see?
 Weary O Lord, thou know'st I am;
 Yet still I cannot come to thee.
- 3 Rest to my soul I long to find, Saviour, if mine indeed thou art, Give me thy meek and lowly mind And stamp thy image on my heart.
- 4 Fain would I learn of thee my God,
 Thy light and eafy burthen prove,
 The crofs all stain'd with hallow'd blood,
 The labour of thy dying love.
- And after my dear mafter bear,
 With thee aftend to Calv'ry's top,
 And bow my head and fuffer there.
- My heart from ev'ry fin release;
 Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
 And fill me with thy perfect peace.
- 7 Come Lord, the drooping finner chear,
 Nor let thy chariot-wheels delay:
 Appear in my poor heart, appear,
 My God, my Saviour, come away!

HYMN XXIII.

A Prayer against the power of fin.

- That thou would'ft the heavens rent,
 In majesty come down,
 Stretch out thine arm omnipotent,
 And seize me for thine own.
- The stubble of thy foe:

 My fins o'erturn, o'erturn,

 And make the mountains flow.
- And curb my head-strong will:

 Thou only canst drive back the tide,
 And bid the sun stand still.
- What tho' I cannot break my chain,
 Or e'er throw off my load,
 The things impossible to men,
 Are possible to God.
- Is any thing too hard for thee
 Almighty Lord of all:
 Whose threatning looks dry up the sea,
 And make the mountains fall?
- 6 Who, who shall in thy presence stand And match Omnipotence? Ungrasp the hold of thy right hand, Or pluck the sinner thence?
- Nearer to fave thou art;
 Stronger than all the powers of hell,
 And greater than my heart.

- Lo! to the hills I lift mine eye,
 Thy promis'd help I claim;
 Father of mercies, glorify
 Thy fav'rite Jefu's name!
- Balm of my grief and care:

 A med'cine for my ev'ry wound,

 All, all I want is there!

Part the Second.

And this was had

- J ESU! Redeemer, Saviour, Lord, The weary finner's friend, Come to my help, pronounce the word And bid my troubles end.
- And life, and liberty,

 Shed forth the virtue of thy name,

 And Jefus prove to me.
- For thou that faith hast given:
 Thou canst, thou canst the sinner save
 And make me meet for heaven.
- Thou wilt victorious prove;
 For everlasting strength is thine,
 And everlasting love.
- Thy powerful spirit shall subdue
 Unconquerable sin;
 Cleanse this foul heart, and make it new,
 And write thy law within.
- Yet let me hear thy call,

 My foul in confidence shall rife,
 Shall rife, and break through all.

- The blind his fight receive,

 The dumb in fongs of praife rejoice,

 The heart of stone believe.
- The Æthiop then shall change his skin,
 The dead shall feel thy power,
 The loathsome leper shall be clean,
 And I shall sin no more.

HYMN XXIV.

Defiring to Love.

- Love, I languish at thy stay
 I pine for thee with ling'ring smart,
 Weary and faint thro' long delay,
 When wilt thou come into my heart:
 From sin and forrow set me free,
 And swallow up my soul in thee?
- 2 Come, O thou univerfal good,
 Balm of the wounded confcience come,
 The hungry, dying spirit's food,
 The weary, wand'ring pilgrim's home,
 Haven to take the shipwreck'd in,
 My everlasting rest from fin.
- Be thou, O Love, whate'er I want,
 Support my feebleness of mind.
 Relieve the thirsty foul, the faint
 Revive, illuminate the blind:
 The mournful chear, the drooping lead,
 And heal the sick, and raise the dead.
- My firength, and health, my shield and sun,
 My boast, and considence, and might,
 My joy, my glory, and my crown;
 My gospel-hope, my calling's prize,
 My tree of life, my paradise.

The fecret of the Lord thou art,
The mystery so long unknown,
Christ in a pure believing heart,
The name inscrib'd on the white stone,
The life divine, the little leaven,
My precious pearl, my present heaven.

Part the Second.

- The Father's co-eternal Son
 Bore all my fins upon the tree!
 Th' immortal God for me hath died,
 My Lord, my love is crucified!
- 7 Behold him all ye that pass by,
 The bleeding Prince of life and peace;
 Come, see, ye worms, your Maker die,
 And say, was ever grief like his!
 Come, feel with me his blood applied!
 My Lord my love is crucified!
- 8 Is crucified for me and you,
 To bring us rebels back to God:
 Believe, believe the record true,
 We all are bought with Jefu's blood;
 Pardon and life flow from his fide,
 My Lord, my love is crucified!
- And gladly catch the healing thream,
 All things for him account but lofs,
 And give up all our hearts to him,
 Of nothing speak or think beside,
 My Lord, my love is crucified!

HYMN XXV.

Groaning for the Spirit of adoptions

- FATHER, if thou my father art,
 Send forth the spirit of thy son,
 Breathe him into my panting heart,
 And make me know as I am known;
 Make me thy conscious child, that I,
 May Father, Abba Father, cry!
- I want the spirit of pow'r within,
 Of love and of an healthful mind;
 Of power to conquer inbred sin,
 Of love to thee and all mankind,
 Of health that pain and death defies
 Most vig'rous when the body dies.
- When shall I hear the inward voice,
 Which only faithful fouls can hear!
 Pardon, and peace, and heavenly joys,
 Attend the promis'd Comforter;
 He comes! and righteousness divine,
 And Christ, and all with Christ is mine.
- O that the Comforter would come,
 Nor visit as a transient guest,
 But six in me his constant home,
 And keep possession of my breast;
 And make my soul his lov'd abode,
 The temple of in-dwelling God!
- Come, holy Ghost, my heart inspire,
 Attest that I am born again;
 Come, and baptize me now with fire,
 Or all thy former gifts are vain:
 Where is the sense of fin forgiven?
 Where is the earnest of my heaven?

6 Where the indubitable feal,
That afcertains the kingdom mine?
The powerful framp I long to feel,
The fignature of love divine:
O shed it in my heart abroad,
Fulness of love, of heaven, of God.

H Y M N XXVI.

Micab vi. 6. &c.

- Herewith, O Lord, shall I draw near,
 And bow myself before thy face?
 How in thy purer eyes appear?
 What shall I bring to gain thy grace?
- Will gifts delight the Lord most high?
 Will multiplied oblations please?
 Thousands of rams his favour buy,
 Or slaughter'd hecatombs appease?
- Can these assuage the wrath of God?
 Can these wash out my guilty stain?
 Rivers of Oil, and seas of blood,
 Alas! they all must flow in vain!
- What have I then wherein to trust?

 I nothing have, I nothing am;
 Excluded is my ev'ry boast,
 My glory swallow'd up in shame.
- Guilty I stand before thy face;
 I feel on me thy wrath abide:
 'Tis just the fentence should take place,
 'Tis just—but O thy son hath died.
- 6 Jesus, the Lamb of God, hath bled, He bore our fins upon the tree, Beneath our curse he bow'd his head; 'Tis finish'd! he hath died for me!

- For me I now believe he died:

 He made my ev'ry crime his own,

 Fully for me he fatisfied:

 Father well-pleas'd, behold thy fon.
 - And pours the all-prevailing prayer,
 Points to his fide, and lifts his hands,
 And shews that I am graven there!
- He ever lives for me to pray,
 He prays that I with him might reign:

 Amen, to what my Lord doth fay:
 Jefu, thou canst not pray in vain.

H Y M N XXVII.

Redemption found.

- Sure my found the ground whereing Sure my foul's anchor may remain; The wounds of Jesus for my fin Before the world's foundation stain: Whose mercy shall unshaken stay When heaven and earth are sted away.
- Z Father thine everlasting grace,
 Our scanty thought surpasses far:
 Thine heart still melts with tenderness,
 Thine arms of love still open are
 Returning sinners to receive,
 That mercy they may take and live.
- O love thou bottomless abyss!

 My sins are swallow'd up in thee,

 Cover'd is mine unrighteousness,

 Nor spot of guilt remains on me,

 While Jesu's blood, through earth and skies,

 Mercy,—free, boundless mercy cries.

and gold gold and miler

With faith I plunge me in the fea,
Here is my hope, my joy, my rest;
Hither, when hell assails, I slee,
I look into my Saviour's breast;
Away, sad doubt, and anxious fear!
Mercy is all that's written there.

Tho' waves and storms go o'er my head,
Tho' strength, and health, and friends be gone;
Tho' joys be wither'd all and dead,
Though ev'ry comfort be withdrawn,
On this my stedfast foul relies,
Father, thy mercy never dies.

Fix'd on this ground will I remain,
Though my heart fail, and flesh decay;
This anchor shall my soul sustain,
When earth's soundations melt away;
Mercy's full power I then shall prove,
Lov'd with an everlasting love.

HYMN XXVIII.

The Same.

- HOLY Lamb, who thee receive, Who in thee begin to live. Day and night they cry to thee, As thou art, fo let us be!
- Jesu, see my panting breast, See I pant in thee to rest! Gladly would I now be clean, Cleanse me now from ev'ry sin.
- Fix, O fix my wav'ring mind, To thy crofs my spirit bind; Earthly passions far remove, Swallow up my soul in love.
- 4 Dust and ashes the we be Full of guilt and misery,

Thine we are, Thou Son of God, Take the purchase of thy blood.

- Who in heart on thee believes, He th'atonement now receives, He with joy beholds thy face Triumphs in thy pard'ning grace.
- 6 See, ye finners, fee the flame, Rifing from the flaughter'd Lamb! Mark the new, the living way, Leading to eternal day.
- Jesus when this light we see,
 All our soul's on fire for thee;
 When thy soft ning power we prove,
 All our heart dissolves in love.
- Sons of earth, and hofts of heaven.

H Y M N XXIX.

CHRIST our righteoufness.

- JESU, Thou art my righteousness, For all my fins were thine: Thy death hath bought of God my peace, Thy life hath made him mine.
- Spotless and just in thee I am;
 I teel my fins forgiv'n;
 I taste falvation in thy name,
 And antedate my heaven,
- For ever here my rest shall be, Close to thy bleeding side; This all my hope and all my plea, For ME the Saviour died.

- My dying Saviour and my God,
 Fountain for guilt and fin,
 Sprinkle me ever with thy blood,
 And cleanfe and keep me clean.
- Wash me and seal me thus thine own,
 Wash me, and mine thou art;
 Wash, me, but not my feet alone,
 My hands, my head, my heart.
- Th'atonement of thy blood apply,
 'Till faith to fight improve,
 'Till hope in full fruition die,
 And all my foul is love.

HYMN XXX

CHRIST our fanclification.

- J ESUS, my life, thyfelf apply, Thine hallowing spirit breathe; My vile affections crucify, Conform me to thy death.
- 2 Conqu'ror of hell, and earth and fin, Still with thy rebel strive; Enter my foul and work within, And kill, and make alive.
- As the old Adam dies;
 Bury me, Saviour, in thy grave,
 That I with thee may rife.
- A Reign in me, Lord; thy foes controul,
 Who would not own thy fway;
 Diffuse thine image thro' my foul,
 Shine to the perfect day.
- Scatter the last remains of fin, And feat me thine abode O make me glorious all within, A temple built by God.

6. Mine inward holiness thou art,.

For faith hath made thee mine ::

With all thy fulness fill my heart,,

'Till all I am is thine.

HYMN XXXI.

Gratitude for our Converfions

- Thee will I love, my strength, my tower,.

 Thee will I love, my joy, my crown,.

 Thee will I love with all my power,

 In all my works, and thee alone;.

 Thee will I love, 'till the pure fire

 Fill my whole foul with chaste desire.
- Ah! why did I so late thee know,
 Thee lovelier than the sons of men:
 Ah! why did I no sooner go,
 To thee, the only ease in pain;
 Asham'd I sigh, and inly mourn,
 That I so late to thee did turn.
- In darkness willingly I stray'd;
 I sought thee, yet from thee I rov'd:
 Far wide my wandring thoughts were spread,.
 Thy creatures more than thee I lov'd;
 And now if more at length I see,
 'Tis through thy light, and comes from thee.
- I thank thee, uncreated fon,
 That thy bright beams on me have shin'd,
 I thank thee, who hast overthrown
 My foes, and heal'd my wounded mind:
 I thank thee, whose enliving voice
 Bids my freed heart in thee rejoice.
 - Nor fuffer me again to stray:
 Strengthen my feet with steady pace:
 Still to press forward in thy way:

My foul and flesh, O Lord of might, Fill, fatiate with thy heavenly light.

- Give to mine eyes refreshing tears,
 Give to my heart chaste hallow'd fires,
 Give to my foul, with filial fears,
 The love that all heaven's host inspires,
 That all my powers with all their might,
 In thy sole glory may unite.
- Thee will I love, my joy, my crown,
 Thee will I love, my Lord, my God,
 Thee will I love beneath thy frown,
 Or fmile, thy fcepter, or thy rod;
 What tho' my flesh and heart decay,
 Thee shall I love in endless day.

H Y M N XXXII.

CHRIST the friend of Sinners.

- HERE shall my wond'ring soul begin?
 How shall I all to heaven aspire?
 A slave redeem'd from death and sin,
 A brand pluck'd from eternal fire!
 How shall I equal triumphs raise,
 And sing my great deliv'rer's praise?
- 2 O how shall I thy goodness tell,
 Father which thou to me hast show'd,
 That I, a child of wrath and hell,
 I should be call'd a child of God!
 Should know, should feel my fins forgiven,
 Blest with this antepast of heaven.
- And shall I slight my father's love,
 Or basely fear his gifts to own!
 Unmindful of his favours prove?
 Shall I, the hallow'd cross to shun.
 Resuse his righteousness t' impart,
 By hiding it within my heart?

And call forth all his host to war,
Tho' earth's felf-righteous sons engage,
Them, and their God, alike I dare;
Jesus, the sinner's friend proclaim,
Jesus, to sinners still the same.

Harlots, and publicans, and thieves;
He spreads his arms t'embrace you all,
Sinners alone his grace receives;
No need of him the righteous have,
He came the lost to seek and save,

Ye ruffians fell, in murders old!
Repent and live, despair and trust;
Jesus, for you to death was sold;
Tho' hell protest, and earth repine,
He died for crimes like yours and mine.

Groaning beneath your load of fin!

His bleeding heart shall make you room,

His open side shall take you in:

He calls you now, invites you home,

Come, O my guilty brethren, come.

For you the purple current flow'd,
In pardons from his wounded fide:
Languish'd for you th' eternal God;
For you the prince of Glory died:
Believe, and all your fin's forgiven,
Only believe! and your's is heaven.

HYMN XXXIII.

Subjection to CHRIST.

JESU, to thee my heart I bow;
Strange flames far from my foul remove:
Fairest among ten thousand thou,
Be thou my Lord, my life, my love.

- All heaven thou fill'st with pure desire:
 O shine upon my frozen breast;
 With sacred love my heart inspire,
 May I too thy hid sweetness taste.
- I fee thy garments roll'd in blood,
 Thy streaming head, thy hands, thy fide:
 All hail, thou suffering, conquering God!
 Now man shall live, for God hath died!
- And triumph o'er my willing breast;
 Restore thine image, Lord therein,
 And lead me to thy Father's rest.
- Saviour be thou my love alone;
 No more may nine uturp the fway,
 But in me thy great will be done.
- 6 Yea, thou true witness, spotless Lamb,
 All things for thee I count but loss;
 My sole desire, my constant aim,
 My only glory be thy cross!

HYMN XXXIV.

On the Crucifixion.

- BEHOLD the faviour of mankind,
 Nail'd to the shameful tree!
 How vast the love that him inclin'd
 To bleed and die for thee!
- And earth's strong pillars bend!

 The temple's veil in sunder breaks,

 The folid marbles rend.

fearist smong ten theddand thou,

Bethou my Lord, my life, my love.

- Tis done: the precious ranfom's paid;
 Receive my foul, he cries;
 See where he bows his facred head,
 He bows his head and dies!
- And in full glory shine;
 O Lamb of God, was ever pain,
 Was ever love like thine!

HYMN XXXV.

Living by CHRIST.

- JESU, thy boundless-love to me,
 No thought can reach, no tongue declare,
 O knit my thankful heart to thee,
 And reign without a rival there;
 Thine wholly, thine alone I am;
 Be thou alone my constant flame.
- O grant that nothing in my foul
 May dwell, but thy pure love alone:
 O may thy love possess me whole,
 My joy, my treasure and my crown;
 Strange fires far from my foul remove;
 My every act, word, thought, be love.
- O love, how charming is thy ray!
 All pain before thy prefence flies;
 Care, anguish, forrow, melt away,
 Where'er thy healing streams arise.
 O Jesu, nothing may I see,
 Nothing hear, seel, or think, but thee.
- Dauntless to the high prize aspire;
 Hourly within my breast renew
 This holy slame, this heavenly fire;
 And day and night be all my care,
 To guard this facred treasure there.

My Saviour, thou thy love to me,
In want, in pain, in shame hath shew'd
For me on the accursed tree
Thou poured'st forth thy guiltless blood
Thy wounds upon my heart impress,
Nor ought shall the lov'd stamp esface.

More hard than marble is my heart,
And foul with fins of deepest stain:
But thou the mighty Saviour art,
Nor flow'd thy cleansing blood in vain:
Ah! soften, melt this rock; and may
Thy blood wash all my stains away.

Oh that my heart, which open stands,
Might catch each drop, that tort'ring pain,
Arm'd by my fins, wrung from thy hands,
Thy teet, thy head, thy every vein:
That still my breast may heave with sighs,
Still tears of love c'erslow my eyes.

8 O that I, as a little child,
May follow thee, or never rest,
'Till sweetly thou hast pour'd thy mild
And lowly mind into my breast!
Nor ever may we parted be,
'Till I become one spirit with thee.

Part the Second.

- Draw me Saviour after thee,
 So shall I run, and never tire:
 With gracious words still comfort me,
 Be thou my hope, my sole desire:
 Free me from every weight; nor fear,
 Nor fin can come, if thou art near.
- My health, my light, my life, my crown,
 My portion and my treasure thou;
 O take me, seal me for thine own,
 To thee alone my foul I bow:

Without thee all is pain; my mind Repose in nought but thee can find.

- In thee alone is all my rest;
 Be thou my theme, within me burn,
 Jesu, and I in thee am blest;
 Thou art the balm of life, my soul
 Is faint; O save, O make it whole!
- My star by night, my sun by day,
 My star by night, my sun by day,
 My spring of life, when parch'd with drought,
 My wine to chear, my bread to stay,
 My strength, my shield, my safe abode,
 My robe before the throne of God.
- Ah! love, thine influence withdrawn,
 What profits me that I was born?
 All my delight, my joy is gone,
 Nor know I peace till thou return:
 Thee may I feek, 'till I attain,
 And never may we part again.
- Thy tender mercies me purfu'd:

 Ever with me may they abide,
 And close me in on every fide.
- Still let thy love point out my way,

 (How wond'rous things thy love hath

 Still lead me, left I go aftray, [wrought!]

 Direct my work, inspire my thought;

 And when I fall, soon may I hear

 Thy voice, and know that love is near.
- In fuff'ring be thy love my peace, In weakness be thy love my powers

And when the Storms of life shall cease, Jesu, in that important hour: In death as life be thou my guide, And save me, who for me hast died.

HYMN XXXVI.

Gop's love to mankind.

- Who would not give his heart to thee!
 Who would not love thee with his might?
 O Jefu, lover of mankind,
 Who would not his whole foul and mind,
 With all his strength to thee unite?
- 2 Thou shin'st with everlasting rays;
 Before th' insufferable blaze,
 Angels with both wings veil their eyes;
 Yet free as air thy bounty streams
 On all thy works, thy mercy's beams,
 Diffusive as thy sun's arise.
- Aftonish'd at thy frowning brow,
 Earth, hell, and heaven's strong pillars bow,
 Terrible majesty is thine!
 Who then can that vast love express,
 Which bows thee down to me, who less
 Than nothing am, 'till thou art mine!
- A High-thron'd on heaven's eternal hill,
 In number, weight, and measure still
 Thou sweetly order's all that is:
 And yet thou deign's to come to me,
 And guide my steps that I with thee
 Inthron'd, may reign in endless bliss.
- Fountain of good all bleffing flows From thee; no want thy fulness knows What but thyself canst thou defire?

Yes; felf-fufficient as thou art, Thou dost defire my worthless heart; This, only this dost thou require.

- Primeval beauty! In thy fight
 The first-born fairest sons of light,
 See all their brightest glories fade
 What then to me thine eyes could turn,
 In fin conceiv'd, of woman born,
 A worm, a leaf, a blast, a shade!
- 7 Hell's armies tremble at thy nod,
 And trembling own th' almighty God,
 Sov'reign of earth, hell, air and sky;
 But who is this that comes from far,
 Whose garments roll'd in blood appear?
 'Tis God made man, for man to die.
- Who would not give his heart to thee?
 Who would not love thee with his might?
 O Jefu, lover of mankind,
 Who would not his whole foul and mind,
 With all his strength to thee unite?

HYMN XXXVII.

Truft in Providence.

OMMIT thou all thy griefs,
And ways into his hands,
To his ture truth and tender care,
Who earth and heaven commands:
Who points the clouds their courfe,
Whom winds and feas obey,
He shall direct thy wand'ring feet
He shall prepare thy way.

Thou on the Lord rely,
So fafe shalt thou go on,
Fix on his work thy stedfast eye,
So shall thy work be done:
No profit canst thou gain
By self-consuming care:
To him commend thy cause, his ear
Attends the softest prayer.

3

Thine everlasting truth,
Father, thy ceaseless love,
Sees all thy children's wants, and knows
What best for each will prove;
And whatsoe'er thou will'st,
Thou dost O king of kings:
What thine unerring wisdom choose,
Thy power to being brings.

Thou ev'ry where hast way,
And all things serve thy might;
Thy every act pure blessing is,
Thy path unfullied light.
When thou arisest, Lord,
What shall thy work withstand?
When all thy children want, thou giv'st;
Who, who shall stay thine hand?

Part the Second.

God hears thy fighs and counts thy tears,
God shall lift up thy head:
Thro' waves and clouds and storms,
He gently clears the way;
Wait thou his time so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.

Still heavy is thy heart?
Still fink thy spirits down?
Cast off the weight, let sear depart,
And every care be gone.

What tho' thou rulest not?
Yet heaven, and earth, and hell,
Proclaim God fitteth on the throne,
And ruleth all things well.

Leave to his fov'reign fway
To chuse and to command,
So shalt thou wond'ring own his way,
How wise, how strong his hand:
Far, far above thy thought,
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work hath wrought,
That caus'd thy needless fear.

Thou feeft our weakness, Lord,
Our hearts are known to thee,
O lift thou up the finking hand,
Confirm the feeble knee!
Let us in life, in death,
Thy stedfast truth declare,
And publish with our latest breath,
Thy love and guardian care.

HYMN XXXVIII.

Ifaiab xliii. 1, 2.

PEACE, doubtful heart, my God's I am:
Who form'd thee man forbids my fear:
The Lord hath call'd me by my name;
The Lord protects, for ever near:
His blood for me did once atone,
And still he loves and guards his own.

When passing thro'the watry deep,
I ask in faith his promis'd aid:
The waves an awful distance keep,
And shrink from my devoted head:
Fearless their violence I date:
They cannot harm, for God is there!

And thro' the fire purfue my way:

The fire forgets its power to burn,

The lambent flames around me play:

I own his power, accept the fign,

And shout to prove the Saviour mine.

And guard in fierce temptation's hour,

Hide in the hollow of thy hand,

Shew forth in me thy faving power:

Still be thy arms my fure defence;

Nor earth nor hell shall pluck me thence.

Good as thou art, and strong to fave)

I'll walk o'er life's tempestuous sea,

Up-borne by the unyielding wave;

Dauntless tho' rocks of pride be near,

And yawning whirlpools of despair!

When darkness intercepts the skies,
And forrow's waves around me roll,
When high the storms of passion rise,
And half o'erwhelm my finking soul;
My soul a sudden power shall feel,
And hear a whisper, Peace, Be skill,

7 The' in affliction's furnace tried,
Unhurt, on snares and death I'll tread;
Tho' fin affail, and hell thrown wide,
Pour all its flames upon my head:
Like Moses' bush I'll mount the higher,
And flourish unconsum'd in fire.

HYMN XXXIX,

Wrefling Jacobs

- OME, O thou traveller unknown,
 Whom still I hold, but cannot see,
 My company before is gone,
 And I am left alone with thee:
 With thee all night I mean to stay
 And wrestle 'till the break of day.
- I need not tell thee who I am;
 My misery or fin declare;
 Thyself hast call'd me by my name:
 Look on thy hands and read it there:
 But who, I ask thee, who art thou?
 Tell me thy name, and tell me now.
- In vain thou strugglest to get free,

 I never will unloose my hold:

 Art thou the man that died for me?

 The secret of thy love unfold:

 Wrestling, I will not let thee go,

 'Till I thy name, thy nature know.
- Wilt thou not yet to me reveal,

 Thy new unutterable name?

 O tell me, I befeech thee, tell;

 To know it now refolv'd I ama:

 Wrestling, I will not let thee go,

 'Till I thy name thy nature know.
- Or touch the hollow of my thigh;
 Tho' every finew were unstrung,
 Out of my arms thou shalt not fly:
 Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
 'Till I thy name, thy nature know.

- 6 What tho' my shrinking slesh complaine
 And murmur to contend so long,
 I rise superior to my pain,
 When I am weak, then I am strong:
 And when my all of strength doth fail
 I shall with the God-man prevail.
- I fink beneath thy weighty hand,
 Faint to revive, and fall to rife,
 I fall, and yet by faith I stand:
 I stand, and will not let thee go,
 Till I thy name, thy nature know.

Part the Second.

- But confident in felf-despair!

 Speak to my heart in blessings speak,

 Be conquer'd by my instant prayer:

 Speak, or thou never hence shall move,

 And tell me if thy name is love.
- Tis love! 'tis love! thou diedst for me;
 I hear thy whisper in my heart:
 The morning breaks, the shadows slee;
 Pure universal love thou art:
 To me, to all, thy bowels move,
 Thy nature and thy name is love.
- Unspeakable I now receive;
 Thro' faith I see thee face to face,
 I see thee face to face, and live!
 In vain I have not wept nor strove,
 Thy nature and thy name is love.
- Jefus the feeble finner's friend;
 Nor wilt thou with the night depart,
 But stay, and love me to the end;

Thy mercies never shall remove, Thy nature and thy name is love.

- The fon of righteousness on me
 Hath rose, with healing in his wings;
 Wither'd my nature's strength; from thee
 My soul its life and succour brings;
 My help is all'laid up above,
 Thy nature and thy name is love.
- I halt 'till life's short journey end;
 All helplessness, all weakness, I
 On thee alone for strength depend;
 Nor have I power from thee to move;
 Thy nature and thy name is love:
 - Hell, earth, and fin, with ease o'ercome:
 I leap for joy, pursue my way,
 And as a bounding hart fly home,
 Thro' all eternity to prove
 Thy nature and thy name is love.

HYMN XL.

To CHRIST.

ARISE, my foul, arise,
Thy Saviour's facrifice!
All the names that love could find,
All the forms that love could take,
Jesus in himself hath join'd
Thee my soul his own to make.

Equal with God most high,
He laid his glory by;
He th' eternal God, was born,
Man with men he deign'd t' appear,
Object of his creature's scorn,
Pleas'd a fervant's form to wear.

Divine incarnate word!

Thee let all my pow'rs confess,

Thee my latest breath proclaim!

Help, ye angel choirs to bless,

Shout the lov'd Immanuel's name.

Fruit of a virgin's womb,
The promis'd bleffing's come:
Christ the Father's hope of old,
Christ the woman's conqu'ring seed,
Christ, the Saviour, long foretold,
Born to bruise the serpent's head.

5

Refulgent from afar
See the bright morning flar!
See the day-spring from on high,
Late in deepest darkness rise!
Night recedes, the shadows fly,
Flame with day the opening skies.

He shines on earth ador'd,
The presence of the Lord,
God, the mighty God and true,
God by highest heaven confest,
Stands display'd to mortal view,
God, supreme for ever blest.

Part the Second.

The almighty's fellow thou!

Thou the Father's only Son,

Pleas'd he ever is in thee,

Just and holy thou alone,

Full of truth and grace for me.

High above every name, Jesus, the great I AM; Bows to Jesus every knee, Things in heaven, and earth, and hell. Saints adore him, dæmons flee, Friends and men, and angels feel.

He left his throne above,
Emptied of all but love:
Whom the heavens cannot contain,
God vouchfaf'd a worm t'appear,
Lord of glory, fon of man,
Poor, and vile, and abject here.

His own on earth he fought,
His own receiv'd him not:
Him a fign by all blasphem'd
Outcast and despis'd of men:
Him they all a madman deem'd,
Bold to scoff the Nazarene.

10

Thy humble state I sing;
Never shall my triumph end:
Hail, derided Majesty!
Jesus, hail! the sinner's friend!
Friend of Publicans—and me.

Divine engrafted word!

Thee the life our fouls have found,

Thee the refurrection prov'd:

Dead we heard the quick'ning found,

Own'd thy voice, believ'd, and lov'd.

With thee gone up on high,
We live no more to die:
First and last we feel thee now,
Witnessing thy empty tomb,
Alpha and Omega thou
Wast, and art, and art to come.

H Y M N XLI.

To CHRIST.

SAVIOUR, the world's and mine,
Was ever grief like thine!
Thou my pain and curfe hast took,
All my fins were laid on thee:
Help, me, Lord, to thee I look
Draw me Saviour, after thee.

'Tis done! my God hath died,
My love is crucified!
Break this stony heart of mine,
Pour my eyes a ceaseless stood,
Feel my soul, the pangs divine,
Catch my heart the issuing blood!

When, O my God, shall I For thee submit to die?
How the mighty debt repay,
Rival of thy passion prove?
Lead me in thyself the way,
Melt my hardness into love.

To love is all my wish,
I only live for this?
Grant me, Lord, my heart's desire,
There by faith for ever dwell:
This I always will require,
Thee, and only thee, to feel.

Thy power I pant to prove,
Rooted and fix'd in love:
Strengthen'd by thy Spirit's might,
Wife to fathom things divine,
What the length, and breadth, and height,
What the depth of love like thine!

6 Ah! give me this to know, With all thy faints below! Swells my foul to compass thee, Gasps in thee to live and move, Fill'd with all the deity, All immers'd and lost in love.

HYMN XLII.

To CHRIST.

STILL, O my foul prolong,
The never ceasing fong!
Christ my theme, my hope, my joy;
His be all my happy days,
Praise my every hour employ,
Every breath be spent in praise,

His would I wholly be,
Who liv'd and died for me;
Grief was all his life below,
Pain, and poverty, and loss;
Mine the fins that bruis'd him so,
Scourg'd and nail'd him to the cross.

A spotless criminal:

Burthen'd with a world of guilt,

Blacken'd with imputed fin,

Man to save, his blood he spilt,

Died to make the sinner clean.

Join earth and heaven to blefs,
'The Lord our righteousness:
Mystery of redemption this,
This the Saviour's strange design,
Man's offence was counted his,
Ours his righteousness divine.

In him complete we shine, His life and death is mine. Fully am I justified,

Free from fin and more than free;
Guiltless, fince for me he died
Righteous, fince he died for me.

Jefu, to thee I bow,
 Sav'd to the utmost now:
 O the depth of love divine!
 Who thy wisdom's store can tell?
 Knowledge infinite is thine,
 All thy ways unsearchable!

HYMN XLIII.

To Christ the King.

J ESU, thou art our King,
To me thy fuccour bring,
Christ the mighty one art thou,
Help for all on thee is laid:
This the word, I claim it now,
Send me now the promis'd aid.

High on thy Father's throne,
O look with pity down!
Help, O help! attend my call,
Captive lead captivity!
King of Glory, Lord of all,
Christ, be Lord, be King to me,

I pant to feel thy sway,
And only thee t'obey:
Thee my spirit gasps to meet;
This my one, my ceaseless prayer,
Make, O make my heart thy seat,
O set up thy kingdom there!

Triumph and reign in me, And fpread thy victory; Hell, and death, and fin controul, Pride, felf-love and ev'ry foe, All fubdue: through all my foul Conquering and to conquer go.

HYMN XLIV.

Invitation of Sinners to Christ.

- The glories of my God and King,
 The triumphs of his grace.
- 2 My glorious Master and my God,
 Assist me to proclaim,
 To spread through all the earth abroad
 The honours of thy name.
- Jefus, the name that charms our fears, That bids our forrows cease; 'Tis music in the sinner's ears, 'Tis life, and health, and peace.
- 4 He breaks the power of cancel'd fin,
 He fets the pris'ner free:
 His blood can make the foulest clean;
 His blood avail'd for me,
- Mew life the dead receive,

 The mournful broken hearts rejoice,

 The humble poor believe.
- Hear him, ye deaf; his praise ye dumb,
 Your loosen'd tongues employ;
 Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,
 And leap ye lame for joy.

- Your God, ye fallen race; Look and be fav'd thro' faith alone, Be justified by grace.
- 8 Harlots, and publicans, and thieves, In holy triumph join! Sav'd is the finner that believes From crimes as great as mine.
- Murtherers, and all the hellish crew,
 Blacken'd with lust and pride,
 Believe the Saviour died for you,
 For you the Saviour died.
- Awake from guilty nature's sleep,
 And Christ shall give you light,
 Cast all your sins into the deep,
 And wash the Æthiop white.
- Shall feel your fins forgiven,
 Anticipate your heaven below,
 And own that love is heaven.

HYMN XLV.

The Saviour glorified by all.

Thou, Jesu, art our king,
Thy ceaseless praise we sing:
Praise shall our glad tongues employ
Praise o'erslow our grateful soul;
While we vital breath enjoy,
While eternal ages roll.

Thou art th'eternal light, Thou shin'st in deepest night; Wond'ring gaze th' angelic train
While thou bowd'st the heaven's beneath,
God with God wert man with man,
Man to save from endless death.

Thou for our pain didst mourn,
Thou hast our sickness borne;
Allour fins on thee were laid,
Thou with unexampled grace,
All the mighty debt hast paid,
Due from Adam's helpless race.

Thou hast o'erthrown the foe,
God's kingdom fixt below;
Conqu'ror of all adverse power;
Thou heaven's gates hast open'd wide,
Thou thine own dost lead secure,
In thy cross and by thy side.

Enthron'd above you sky
Thou reign'st with God most high,
Prostrate at thy feet we fall:
Power supreme to thee be given:
Thee the righteous Lord of all,
Sons of earth and hosts of heaven.

5

Cherubs and Seraphs join
And in thy praise combine:
All their choirs thy glories fing.
Who shall dare with thee to vie?
Mighty Lord, eternal king,
Sov'reign both of earth and sky.

Part the Second.

Patriarchs, first-born of men:
Hail apostles of the Lamb,
By whose strength ye faithful prov'd,
Joint t'extol his facred name,
Whom in life and death ye lov'd.

With thy high praise resounds;

With thy high praise resounds;

Confessor undaunted here,

Unasham'd proclaim their king,

Childrens feeble voices there,

To thy name hosannas sing.

9

Mid'it danger's blackest frown.
The host of martyrs own:
Pain and shame alike they dare,
Firmly, singularly good,
Glorying thy cross to bear,
'Till they feal their faith with blood.

Thou fuffering conqueror!
Thou fuffering conqueror!
Thoufand virgins chaft and clean,
From loves pleafing witchcraft free.
Fairer than the fons of men,
Confecrate their hearts to thee.

Wide earth's remotest bound

Full of thy praise is found:

And all heaven's eternal day

With thy streaming glory stames;

All thy foes shall melt away,

From th' insufferable beams.

Let us thy mercy prove!

King of all, with pitying eye,

Mark the toil, the pangs we feel;

'Midst the snares of death we lie,

'Midst the banded powers of hell.

Thou deathless conqueror!

Help us to obtain the prize,

Help us well to close our race,

That with thee above the skies,

Endless joys we may possess,

HYMN XLVI.

I am determined to know nothing, fave JESUS CHRIST and bim crucified.

- With all of creature good;
 Only Jefus I purfue,
 Who bought me with his blood;
 All thy pleafures I forego,
 I trample on thy wealth and pride,
 Only Jefus will I know,
 And Jefus crucified.
- Other knowledge I disdain,
 'Tis all but vanity:
 Christ, the Lamb of God, was slain,
 He tasted death for me:
 Me to save from endless woe,
 The sin-atoning victim died:
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
- Turning to my rest again,
 The Saviour I adore,
 He relieves my grief and pain,
 And bids me weep no more:
 Rivers of salvation flow
 From out his head, his hands, his side;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
- My fluctuating heart

 From the haven of his breaft

 Shall never more depart:

Wither should a finner go?
His wounds for me stand open wide:
Only Jesus will I know,
And Jesus crucified.

Part the Second.

- 5 WHAT tho' all I am is fin,
 Sin cannot break my peace,
 Here is blood to wash me clean,
 From all unrighteousness:
 This shall wash me white as snow:
 On this for all things I conside:
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
- 6 What the earth and hell engage
 To shake my foul with fear,
 Calmly I defy the rage
 Of persecution near:
 Suffering faith shall brighter glow,
 As gold when in the furnace tried:
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
- 7 Him to know is life and peace,
 And pleasure without end,
 This is all my happiness
 On Jesus to depend.
 Daily in grace to grow,
 And ever in his faith abide;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
- 8 O that I could all invite,

 'This faving truth to prove!

 Shew the length, and breadth, and height,

 And depth of Jesu's love;

 Fain I would to sinners shew

 The blood by faith alone apply'd,

 Only Jesus will I know,

 And Jesus crucified.

Him in all my works I feek,
Who hung upon the tree,
Only of his love I fpeak,
Who freely died for me:
While I fojourn here below,
Of nothing will I think befide;
Only Jefus will I know,
And Jefus crucified.

H Y M N XLVII.

The Same.

Their world their virtue boast
Their works of righteousness;
I, a wretch undone and lost,
Am freely sav'd by grace:
Other title I disclaim,
This, only this is all my plea,
I the chief of sinners am,
But Jesus died for me.

Let the stronger fons of God
Their liberty affert,
Justly glory in the blood
That made them pure in heart:
I am sull of guilt and shame,
My heart as black as hell I fee;
I the chief of sinners am,
But Jesus died for me,

Happy they whose joys abound,
Like fordan's swelling stream,
Who their heaven in Christ have found,
And give the praise to him:
Let them triumph in his name,
Enjoy their full selicity:
I the chief of sinners am,
But Jesus died for me.

Who can in him rejoice,

Who can in him rejoice,

Lean on his beloved breaft,

And hear the bridegroom's voice:

Meanest follower of the Lamb,

His steps I at a Distance see,

I the chief of Sinners am,

But Jesus died for me.

For I of him have need;
I cannot give up my hope,
Though I am cold and dead.
To bring fire on earth he came,
O that it now might kindled be!
I the chief of finners am,
But Jesus died for me.

6 Jefus thou for me hast died,
And thou in me wilt live,
I shall feel thy death applied,
I shall thy life receive:
Yet when melted in the slame
Of love, this shall be all my plea:
I the chief of sinners am,
But Jesus died for me.

HYMN XLVIII.

To Christ the Prophet.

PROPHET on earth bestow'd A teacher sent from God,
Thee we welcome from above,
Sent the Father to reveal,
Sent to manifest his love,
Sent to teach his perfect will.

Ah! give us, Lord to know Thine office here below: Preach deliverance to the poor!
Sent for this, O Christ, thou art:
Jesus, all our sickness cure,
Bind thou up the broken heart.

Publish the joyful year
Of God's acceptance here,
Preach glad tidings to the meek,
Liberty to spirits bound,
Gracious free redemption speak,
Spread thro' earth the gospel sound.

Humbly behold we fit,
And liften at thy feet;
Never will we hence remove:
Lo! to thee our fouls we bow:
Tell us of thy Father's love;
Speak; for Lord, we hear thee now.

Master, to us reveal,
His acceptable will:
Ever for thy law we wait:
Write it in our inward parts,
Our dark minds illuminate,
Grave thy kindness on our hearts.

O teach us how to pray;
Worship spiritual and true
Still instruct us how to give;
Let us pay the service due,
Let us to God's glory live.

Part the Second.

7 HOLY and true, The key,
Of David rests on thee,
Come Messiah, all things tell,
Make us to salvation wise,
Shut the gates of death and hell,
Open, open paradise,

- Witness, within us place
 The spirit of his grace;
 Teach us inwardly and guide
 By an unction from above,
 Let it in our hearts abide,
 Source of light, and life, and love.
- Pronounce our happy doom,
 And shew us things to come;
 All the depths of love display,
 All the mystery unfold.
 Speak us feal'd to thy great day,
 In thy book of life enroll'd!
- Thy little flock of sheep,
 Call'd and gather'd into one,
 Feed us, in green pastures feed,
 Make us quietly lie down,
 By the streams of comfort lead.
- Thou, even thou art he,
 Whom pain and forrow flee;
 Comforter of all that mourn,
 Let us by thy guidance come,
 Crown'd with endless joy, return
 To our everlasting home.

HYMN XLIX.

CHRIST protecting and sanctifying.

Jefus, fource of calm repose,
Thy like nor man nor angel knows,
Fairest among ten thousand fair,
Ev'n those whom death's fad fetters bound,
Whom thickest darkness compass round,
Find light and life, if thou appear.

Effulgence of the light divine,
E're rolling planets knew to shine,
E're time its ceaseless course began;
Thou when th' appointed time was come,
Did'st not abhor the virgin's womb,
But God with God wert man with man,

The world, fin, death, oppose in vain,
Thou by thy dying death hast flain,
My great deliverer, and my God:
In vain does the old dragon rage,
In vain all hell its powers engage:
None can withstand thy congring blood.

Lord over all, fent to fulfill
Thy gracious Father's fov'reign will,
To thy dread fcepter will I bow:
With duteous rev'rence at thy feet,
Like humble Mary, lo I fit,
Speak, Lord thy fervant heareth now.

Renew, thine image, Lord in me,
Lowly and gentle may I be,
No charms but these to thee are dear.
No anger may'st thou ever find,
No pride in my unruffled mind,
But faith and heav'n-born peace be there.

Mhich life and all things cast behind,
Springs forth obedient to thy cast,
An heart which no defire can move,
But still t'adore, believe and love,
Give me, my Lord, my life my all.

HYMNL.

A thanksgiving.

- Affift us to fing, thy mercy and love: So fweetly o'erflowing, fo plenteous the store, Thou still art bestowing, and giving us more.
- O God of our life, we hallow thy name,
 Our business and strife, is thee to proclaim;
 Accept our thanksgiving for creating grace;
 The living, the living shall shew forth thy praise.
- O Father and Lord, almighty art thou:
 Preferv'd by thy word, we worship thee now,
 The bountiful donor of all we enjoy!
 Our tongues to thine honour, and lives we employ.
- 4 But O above all thy kindness we praise, From sin and from thrall which saves the lost race; Thy son thou hast given, a world to redeem, And bring us to heaven, whose trust is in him.
- Wherefore of thy love we fing and rejoice, With angels above we lift up our voice, Thy love each believer shall gladly adore, For ever and ever when time is no more.

HYMN LI.

Another.

What shall I do my Saviour to praise?
So faithful and true, so plenteous in grace
So strong to deliver, so good to redeem,
The weakest believer that hangs upon him!

- The people that can be joyful in thee!
 Their joy is to walk in the light of thy face,
 And still they are talking of Jesus's grace.
- Their daily delight shall be in thy name,
 They shall as their right, thy righteousness claim;
 Thy righteousness wearing, and cleans'd by thy blood,
 Bold shall they appear in the presence of God.
- And I also trust to see the glad hour,
 My soul's new creation, a life from the dead,
 The day of salvation that lifts up my head.
- For Jesus my Lord, is now my defence;
 I trust in his word none plucks me from thence,
 Since I have found favour he all things will do;
 My king and my faviour shall make me anew.
- Yes, Lord, I shall see the blis of thine own, Thy secret to me shall soon be made known: For sorrow and sadness I joy shall receive, And share in the gladness of all that believe.

HYMN LII.

Another.

- God of my falvation hear,
 And help a finner to draw near
 With boldness to the throne of grace:
 Help me thy benefits to sing,
 And smile to see me feebly bring,
 My humble facrifice of praise.
- I cannot praise thee as I would, But thou art merciful and good; I know thou never wilt despise,

The day of small and feeble things, But bear me 'till on eagle's wings To all the heights of love I rife.

- A vile backsliding sinner, I
 Ten thousand deaths deserve to die,
 Yet still by sov'reign grace I live:
 Saviour, to thee I still look up,
 I see an open door of hope,
 And wait thy sulness to receive.
- The trust I have to see thy face,
 When sin shall all be purg'd away;
 The night of fears and doubts is past,
 The Morning-star appears at last,
 And I shall see the perfect day.
- Already, Lord, I feel thy power,
 Preserv'd from evil ev'ry hour,
 My great preserver I proclaim;
 Safety and strength in thee I have,
 I find, I find thee strong to save
 And know that Jesus is thy name.
- 6 By faith I every moment stand,
 Strangely upheld by thy right hand,
 I my own wickedness eschew:
 A finner, I am kept from sin,
 And thou shalt make me pure within,
 And thou shalt form my soul anew.

Part the fecond.

Thank thee whose atoning blood
Each moment interceeds with God,
Sprinkling my every word and thoughts.
God hears thy blood for mercy cry,
And passes all my follies by;
He sees, but he imputes them not.

- F fin in every breath I draw,
 Nor do thy will nor keep thy law,
 On earth, as angels do above:
 But still the fountain open stands,
 Washes my feet, and head, and hands,
 'Till I am perfected in love.
- Gome then, and loofe my stamm'ring tongue;
 Teach me the new, the gospel-song,
 And perfect in a babe thy praise:
 I want a thousand lives t'employ
 In publishing the sounds of joy.
 The gospel of thy pard'ning grace:
- Give me thyfelf and take me home,
 Be now the glorious earnest given!
 The counsel of thy grace sulfil,
 Thy kingdom come, thy perfect will
 Be done on earth, as 'tis in heaven:

HYMN LIII.

To the TRINITY.

OD of unexhausted grace,
Of everlasting love,
Overpower'd before thy face
I fall and dare not move:
What hast thou for finners done,
For so poor a worm as me?
Thou hast giv'n thine only Son,
To bring us back to thee.

Suffering, fin-atoning God,
Thy hallow'd name I blefs,
Jefus, lavish of thy blood,
To buy the finner's peace!

Gushing from thy sacred veins, Let it now my soul o'erslow, Purge out all my finful stains, And wash me white as snow.

- The life of Jesus breathe,
 The life of Jesus breathe,
 The deep things of God reveal;
 Apply my Saviour's death;
 With the Father and the Son,
 Soon as one in thee I am;
 All my nature shall make known,
 The glories of the Lamb.
- 4 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 Thy Godhead we adore,
 Join with the triumphant host
 Who praise thee evermore:
 Live by heaven and earth ador'd,
 Three in One, and One in Three,
 Holy, holy, holy, Lord,
 All glory be to thee.

HYMN LIV.

The good fight.

- Mnipotent Lord, my Saviour and King,
 Thy fuccour afford, thy righteousness bring;
 Thy promises bind thee compassion to have,
 Now, now let me find thee almighty to save.
- Rejoicing in hope, and patient in grief,
 To thee I look up for certain relief:
 I fear no denial, no danger I fear,
 Nor start from the trial, while Jesus is near.
- 3 I every hour in jeopardy stand;
 But thou art my power, and holdest my hand;

When yet I am calling, thy fuccour I feel, It faves me from falling, or plucks me from hell.

- O who can explain this struggle for life,
 This travel and pain, this trembling and strife?
 Plague, earthquake, and famine, and tumult, and war,
 The wonderful coming of Jesus declare.
- For every fight is dreadful and loud,
 The warrior's delight is flaughter and blood;
 His foes overturning 'till all shall expire:
 But this is with burning, and fewel of fire.
- Yet God is above men, devils, and fin, My Jesus's love the battle shall win; So terribly glorious his coming shall be, His love all-victorious shall conquer for me.
- 7 He all shall break thro', his truth and his grace. Shall bring me into the plentiful place; Thro' much tribulation, thro' water and fire, Thro' floods of temptation, and slames of desire.
- I On Jesus, my power, till then I rely,.
 All evil before his presence shall sly,
 When I have my Saviour, my sin shall depart,.
 And Jesus for ever shall reign in my heart.

HYMN LV.

Recovery after a Relapfe.

Thee only would I know,

Thy purifying blood apply,

And wash me white as snow.

- Purge mine iniquity:
 Unless thou wash my foul from finI have no part with thee.
- Behold for me the victim bleeds,

 His wounds are open'd wide:

 For me the blood of fprinkling pleads,

 And speaks me justified.
- And pard'ning love takes place ::
 Affift me, Saviour, to adore.
 The riches of thy grace.
- Thy depth of mercy prove,.
 Thou vast unfathomable sea,.
 Of unexhasted love!
- My humbled foul when thou art near,
 In dust and ashes lies:
 How shall a finful worm appear,
 Or meet thy purer eyes?
- 7 I loath myself when God I see:
 And into nothing fall,
 Content if thou exalted be,
 And Christ is all in all:

HYMN LVI.

In doubt.

- And will not quit my claim,
 Till all I have be lost in thine,
 And all renew'd I am.
- But will not let thee go,
 'Till stedfastly by faith I stand,
 And all thy goodness know.

- 3 When shall I see the welcome hour, That plants my God in me: Spirit of health, and life and power, And perfect liberty.
- Jefu, thine all-victorious love
 Shed in my heart abroad:
 Then shall my feet no longer rove,
 Rooted and fix'd in God.
- The strength of fin subdue;
 (Mine own unconquerable fin)
 And form my foul anew.
- The stone to slesh convert,

 Soften, and melt, and pierce, and break,
 An adamantine heart.
- 7 O that in me the facred fire, Might now begin to glow: Burn up the drois of base defire, And make the mountains flow!
- 8 O that it now from heaven might fall.
 And all my fins confume!
 Come, Holy Ghost, for thee I call,
 Spirit of burning, come!
- 9 Refining fire, go through my heart,
 Illuminate my foul,
 Scatter thy life through every part,
 And fanctify the whole.
- While enter'd into rest,

 I only live my God t' admire,
 My God for ever blest.
- While purified by grace,

 I only for his glory burn,

 And always fee his face.

Can now no longer rove,
While Christ is all the world to me,
And all my heart is love.

HYMN LVII.

A Prayer for refloring grace.

J ESUS, friend of finners hear,
Yet once again I pray,
From my debt of fin fet clear,
For I have nought to pay:
Speak, O fpeak the kind releafe,
A poor backfliding foul restore:
Love me freely, feal my peace,
And bid me fin no more.

Tho' my fins as mountains rife,
And swell and reach to heaven,
Mercy is above the skies,
I may be still forgiven:
Infinite my fins increase
But greater is thy mercy's store;
Love me freely, feal my peace,
And bid me fin no more.

Sin's deceitfulness hath spread
An hardness o'er my heart,
But if thou thy spirit shed,
The stony shall depart:
Shed thy love, thy tenderness,
And let me feel the soft'ning power,
Love me freely, seal my peace,
And bid me sin no more,

From th' oppressive power of sine.

My struggling spirit free,
Persect righteousness bring in,
Unspotted purity;

Speak, and all this war shall cease, And fin shall give its raging o'er: Love me freely, seal my peace, And bid me sin no more.

For this only thing I pray,
And this I will require,
Take the power of fin away,
Fill me with chaste desire:
Perfect me in holiness,
Thine image to my foul restore,
Love me freely, seal my peace,
And bid me fin no more.

HYMN LVIIL

After a recovery

SON of God, if thy free grace
Again hath rais'd me up,
Call'd me still to feek thy face,
And giv'n me back my hope;
Still thy timely help afford,
And all thy loving-kindness shew;
Keep me, keep me, gracious Lord,
And never let me go.

By me, O my Saviour, stand,
In fore temptation's hour,
Save me with thine out-stretched hand,
And shew forth all thy power:
O be mindful of thy word,
Thine all-sufficient grace bestow;
Keep me, keep me, gracious Lord,
And never let me go.

Give me, Lord, an holy fear, And fix it in my heart, That I may from evil near With speedy care depart: Sin be more than hell abhorr'd,

Till thou destroy the tyrant foe;

Keep me, keep me, gracious Lord,

And never let me go.

Never let me leave thy breaft,

From thee, my Saviour, stray:

Thou art my support and rest,

My true and living way:

My exceeding great reward,

In heaven above and earth below;

Keep me, keep me, gracious Lord,

And never let me go.

Never let me go, till I,

Upborne on wings of love,
Gain the regions of the sky,
And take my seat above:
See thee by all heav'n ador'd,
And all thy glorious fulness know;
Keep me, keep me, gracious Lord,
And never let me go.

H Y M N LIX.

In danger.

Almighty God of love,
Thine holy arm display;
Send me succour from above
In this my evil day:
Arm my weakness with thy power.
Woman's seed, appear within,
Be my safe-guard and my tower,
Against the sace of sin.

Could I of thy firength take hold,
And always feel thee near,
Stedfastly, divinely bold,
My foul would scorn to fear:

Nothing should my firmness shock, Tho' the gates of hell assail, Were I built upon the rock. They never could prevail.

- Rock of my falvation, haste,
 Extend thy ample shade,
 Let it over me be cast,
 And screen my naked head;
 Save me from the trying hour,
 Thou my sure protection be,
 Shelter me from Satan's power,
 'Till I am fix'd on thee.
- And make me furely stand,
 From temptations rage and heat
 Cover me with thine hand:
 Let me in the cleft be plac'd,
 Never from my fence remove,
 In thine arms of love embrac'd,
 Of everlasting love.

HYMN LX.

A Prayer for confirming grace.

- I F now I have acceptance found
 With thee, or favour in thy fight,
 With thine omnipotence furround,
 And arm me with thy Spirit's might,
- And timely fly from danger near, With reverence unto thee rejoice, And love thee with a filial fear.
- And fuffer not my feet to flide;

 Support me in the glorious strife

 And comfort me on every side.

- O give me faith and faith's increase,
 Finish the work begun in me,
 Preserve my soul in perfect peace
 That stays, and waits, and hangs on thee.
- And bring me to the promis'd land;
 Where righteousness and peace reside,
 And all submit to love's command,
- And springs of pure delights arise, Delights which I shall shortly know, I shall regain my paradise.
- 7 I see it now from Piscab's Top,
 Pleasant and beautiful and good;
 In all the considence of hope
 I claim the purchase of thy blood.
- 8 Of righteousness divine possest,
 O let me grasp the prize so nigh;
 Enter into the promis'd rest,
 Enjoy thy perfect love, and die.

HYMN LXI.

Watch in all things.

- JESU, my Saviour, Brother, Friend, On whom I cast my every care, On whom for all things I depend, Inspire and then accept my prayer.
- If I have tasted of thy grace,
 The grace that sure salvation brings!
 If with me now thy Spirit stays,
 And hov'ring hides me in his wings:
- Nor for a moment's space depart;
 Evil and danger turn away,
 And keep, till be renews my heart.

- When to the right or left I stray,
 His voice behind me may I hear,
 Return and walk in Christ thy way,
 Fly back to Christ, for fin is near.
- Be still my comforter and guide,
 'Till all the stony he remove,
 And in my loving heart reside.
- From nature's every path retreat,
 Thou art my way, my leader be,
 And fet upon the rock my feet.
- 7 Uphold me, Saviour, or I fall,
 O reach me out thy gracious hand,
 Only on thee for help I call,
 Only by faith in thee I stand.

Part the Second.

- PIERCE, fill me with an humble fear,
 My utter helplessness reveal;
 Satan and fin are always near,
 Thee may I always nearer feel.
- O that to thee my constant mind Might with an even flame aspire! Pride in its earliest motions find, And mark the risings of defire.
- The first abhor'd approach of ill;

 Quick as the apple of an eye,

 The slightest touch of sin to feel.
- Still may I strive, and watch, and pray,
 Humbly and confidently wait,
 And long to see thy perfect day.

- On the faint ray of opening light,
 (The fure prophetic word of grace)
 That glimmers thro' my nature's night,
- Here let my foul's fure anchor be, Here let me fix my wishful eyes, And wait till I exult to see The day-star in my heart arise.
- As I believe, fo let it be,
 O make me patient to the end,
 And then reveal thyself in me.

HYMN LXII.

And a man shall be as an biding-place. &c.

- O the haven of thy breast,
 O Son of Man I fly;
 Be my refuge, and my rest,
 For O the storm is high!
 Save me from the furious blast,
 A covert from the tempest be!
 Hide me, Jesus, till o'erpast
 The storm of sin I see.
- Welcome as the water-fpring
 To a dry barren place,
 O descend on me, and bring,
 Thy sweet refreshing grace:
 O'er a parch'd and weary land
 As a great rock extends its shade,
 Hide me Saviour, with thine hand,
 And screen my naked head.
- In the time of my distress
 Thou hast my succour been,
 In my utter helplesness
 Restraining me from fin:

O how fwiftly didft thou move To fave me in the trying hour! Still protect me with thy love, And shield me with thy power.

- First, and last, in me perform The work thou hast begun; Be my shelter from the storm,
 My shadow from the sun:
 Sprinkle still the mercy-feat: And bring thy Father's anger down ; And terror of his frown. Screen me Jefu from the heat

Shall surely come from thee:
But let me still abide,
Nor from my hope remove,
'Till thou my patient spirit guide
Into thy perfect love.

I want a fober mind,
A felf-renouncing will,
That tramples down and casts behind
The baits of pleasing ill:
A foul inur'd to pain,
To hardship, grief and loss,
Bold to take up, firm so sustain,
The consecrated cross.

I want a godly fear,
A quick difcerning eye
That looks to thee when fin is near;
And fees the tempter fly;
A spirit still prepar'd,
And arm'd with jealous care;
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

Part the Second.

Never to murmur at thy flay,
Or wish my suffrings less:
This blessing above all,
Always to pray I want,
Out of the deep on thee to call,
And never, never faint.

A fingle, steady aim;

Still in spite of sin I rise,

Still to call thee mine I dare.

Jesu, Saviour, can it be?

All thy mercy's height I prove,

All the depth is seen in me.

HYMN LXV.

Defining to love.

- C OME, Lord, and help me to rejoice,.
 In hope that I shall hear thy voice,
 Shall one day fee my God;
 Shall cease from all my fin and strife,
 Handle and taste the word of life,
 And feel the sprinkled blood.
- 2 I shall not always make my moan,
 Nor worship thee a God unknown,
 But I shall live to prove
 Thy people's rest, and saints delight,
 The length, and breadth, and depth and height,
 Of thy redeeming love.
- Rejoicing now in earnest hope,
 I stand, and from the mountain top,
 See all the land below:
 Rivers of milk and honey rise,
 And all the fruits of paradise,
 In endless plenty grow.
- A land of corn, and wine, and oil,
 Favour'd with God's peculiar finile,
 With every bleffing bleft:
 There dwells the Lord our righteoufness,
 And keeps his own in perfect peace,
 And everlafting reft.

- No more on this fide Jordan stop,
 But now the land posses;
 This moment end my legal years,
 Sorrows and fins, and doubts and fears,
 And howling wilderness!
- 6 Now, O my Joshua, bring me in, Cast out thy foes, the inbred sin,
 The carnal mind remove,
 The purchase of thy death divide,
 And O with all the sanctified,
 Give me a lot of love!

HYMN LXVI.

Fight the good fight of faith.

- J ESU, my king, to thee I bow, Inlisted under thy command, Captain of my salvation, thou Shalt lead me to the promis'd land.
- Thou hast a great deliverance wrought,
 The staff from off my shoulder broke,
 Out of the house of bondage brought,
 And freed me from the Egyptian yoke.
- Thine out-stretch'd arm was bare'd for me, For me by earth and hell pursu'd: Thine out-stretch'd arm, thro' the Red Sea, Brought and baptiz'd me in thy blood.
- 4 O'er the vast howling wilderness,
 To Canaan's bounds thou hast me led,
 Thou bidst me now the land posses,
 And on thy milk and honey feed.
- I fee an open door of hope,
 (Legions of fins in vain oppose)
 Bold I with thee, my head, march up,
 And triumph o'er a world of foes.

- 6 Gigantic lusts come forth to fight,
 I mark, disdain and all break thro',
 I tread them down in Jesu's might,
 Thro Jesus I can all things do.
- 7 Lo the tall fons of Anak rife!
 Who can the fons of Anak meet?
 Captain, to thee I lift mine eyes,
 And lo they fall beneath my feet!
- Paffion, and appetite and pride,

 (Pride, my old dreadful, tyrant foe)

 I fee cast down on every fide,

 And conquiring them to conquer go.
- 9 My Lord in my behalf appears; Captain, my strength-inspiring eye Scatters my doubts, dispels my fears, And makes the hosts of aliens sly.
- Who is fo great a king as mine?

 High over all is thy right hand,

 And might, and majesty are thine.

Part the Second.

- JESU, my foul takes hold on thee, I arm me with thy Spirit's might, Humbly affur'd of victory, I underneath thy banner fight.
- When as a flood the foe comes in,

 I see the cross, hold fast my nope.

 Believe, and more than conquer sin.
- When by the prince of hell withstood:

 Firm I refist, I grasp my shield,

 And quench his fiery darts with blood...

- Single, a thousand foes I chase,
 I turn and blast them with mine eyes:
 Trembles the world before my face,
 Their God with all his legions flies.
- And give the praise, O Lord, to thee, Thine holy arm, thine own right-hand, Hath got thyself the victory.
- My foul in thee fecurely boasts,

 Exults and glories in thy praise,

 And triumphs in the Lord of hosts.
- Wisdom, and power, and strength, and might, Thou, Lord, art worthy to receive; Honour and riches are thy right, And blessings more than earth can give.
- Ye church of the first-born above,
 Let angels and archangels sing
 The triumphs of all conq'ring love.
- Rejoice his greatness to proclaim,
 And everlasting praises fill
 The heaven of heaven's with Jesu's name.

H Y M N LXVIL

Look unto me and be faved, all ye ends of the earth.

ISAIAH XIV. 22.

S INNERS, your Saviour fee,
O look ye unto me!
Lift your eyes, ye fallen race,
I the gracious God and true.
I am full of truth and grace,
Full of truth and grace for you.

Look and be fav'd from fin,
Believe, and be ye clean!
Guilty, lab'ring fouls, draw nigh,
See the fountain open'd wide,
To the wounds of Jefus fly,
Bathe ye in my bleeding fide.

Ah! dear redeeming Lord,
We take thee at thy word:
Lo to thee we ever look,
Freely fav'd by grace alone:
Thou our fins and curfe hast took,
Thou for us didst once atone.

We now the writing see,
Nail'd to the cross with thee;
With thy mangled body torn,
Blotted out by blood divine,
Far away the bond is borne,
Thou art ours and we are thine.

On thee we fix our eyes,
And wait for fresh supplies,
Justified we ask for more,
Give, th' abiding witness give:
Lord, thine image here restore,
Fully in thy members live.

Part the Second.

A UTHOR of faith, appear,
Be thou its finisher;
Upward still for this we gaze,
'Till we feel the stamp divine;
Thee behold with open face,
Bright in all thy glory shine.

Leave not thy work undone, But ever love thine own Let us all thy goodness prove, Let us to the end believe, Shew thine everlasting love, Save us, to the utmost save.

O that our life might be,
One looking up to thee!
Ever hastening to the day
When our eyes shall see thee near:
Come, Redeemer, come away,
Glorious in thy faints appear.

Jesu, the heavens bow,
We long to meet thee now:
Now in majesty come down,
Pity thine elect and come;
Hear us in thy spirit groan,
Take the weary exiles home,

Now let thy face be feen
Without a veil between:
Come and change our faith to fight,
Swallow up mortality,
Plunge us in a fea of light:
Christ be all in all to me.

H Y M N LXVII.

The Believers triumph.

JESU, thy blood and righteousness My beauty are, my glorious dress: 'Midst slaming worlds in these array'd With joy shall I list up my head.

Bold shall I stand in thy great day, For who ought to my charge shall lay? Fully absolv'd thro' these I am, From sin and sear, from guilt and shame.

- The deadly writing now I fee,
 Nail'd with thy body to the tree;
 Torn with the nails that pierc'd thy hands,
 Th' old covenant no longer stands.
- As hell's foundation fure it stood; Thine hath wash'd out the crimson stains And white as snow my soul remains,
- 5 Satan, thy due reward furvey, The Lord of life, why didst thou slay? To tear the prey out of thy teeth, To spoil the realms of hell and death,
- 6 The holy, meek, unspotted Lamb, Who from the Father's bosom came, Who died for me, ev'n me t'atone, Now for my Lord and God I own.
- 7 Lord I believe thy precious blood, Which at the mercy feat of God, For ever doth for finners plead, For me, ev'n for my foul was shed.
- 8 Yet nought whereof to boast I have, All, all thy mercy freely gave: No works, no righteousness are mine, All is thy work and only thine,

Part the fecond.

HEN from the dust of death I rise, To claim my mansion in the skies, Ev'n then this shall be all my plea, Jesus hath liv'd, hath died for me.

Thus Abraham, the friend of God, Thus all heaven's armies bought with blood, Saviour of finners, thee proclaim, Sanners, of whom the chief I am.

- Naked from Satar did I flee,
 To thee, my Lord, and put on thee:
 And thus adorn'd I wait the word,
 "He comes! arife, and meet thy Lord!"
- Then shall heav'ns hosts with loud acclaim, Give praise and glory to the Lamb, Who bore our fins and by his blood Hath made us kings and priests to God.
- 13 Jefu, be endless praise to thee, Whose boundless mercy bath for me, For me a full atonement made, An everlasting ransom paid.
- Ah give to all thy fervants, Lord, With power to speak thy quick'ning word, That all, who to thy wounds will flee, May find eternal life in thee.
- Thou God of might, thou God of love, Let the whole world thy mercy prove, Now let thy word o'er all prevail, Now take the spoils of death and hell.
- Now bid the dead now hear thy voice, Now bid the banish'd ones rejoice, Their beauty this, their glorious dress Jesu, thy blood and righteousness!

HYMN LXIX.

Who gave bimself for us, that he might redeem us from ALL iniquity, Titus ii. 14.

JESU, Redeemer of mankind, How little art thou known By finners of a carnal mind, Who claim thee for their own?

- Who blasphemously call thee Lord,
 With lips and hearts unclean,
 But make thee, while they slight thy word,
 The minister of sin?
- Who madly plead for fins remains;
 While full of flavish fears,
 They fancy thou hast purg'd their stains,
 And falsly call thee their's.
- 4 O wretched man who dares divide
 The pardon and the peace!
 In vain for thee the Saviour died,
 Unless he seals thee his.
- Thy harden'd conscience freed!
 When Jesus doth a soul redeem,
 He makes it free indeed.
- 6 The guilt and power with all thy art
 Can never be disjoin'd;
 Nor will God bid the guilt depart,
 And leave the power behind.
- 7 Faith when it comes, breaks every chain And makes us truly free,
 But Christ hath died for thee in vain,
 Unless he lives in thee.
- But liberty within?

 A liberty to ferve my God,
 And to eschew my fin.
- 9 What is our calling's glorious hope,
 But inward holiness?
 For this to Jesus I look up,
 I calmly wait for this.
- Redeem me from all fin,

 My heart would now receive thee, Lord,

 Come in, my Lord, come in!

H Y M N LXX.

Rejoicing in hope.

The prisoners of the Lord,
And wait till Christ appear,
According to his word:
Rejoice in hope, rejoice with me,
We shall from all our fins be free.

The Lord our righteousness,

We have long since received,

Salvation nearer is,

Than when we first believed:

Rejoice in hope, rejoice with me,

We shall from all our sins be free.

In God we put our trust;

If we our fins confess,

Faithful he is and just,

From all unrighteousness,

To cleanse us all, both you and me,

We shall from all our fins be free.

Surely in us the hope
Of glory shall appear;
Sinners, your heads lift up,
And see redemption near:
Again I say rejoice with me,
We shall from all our fins be free.

My fellow prisoners now,
Ye soon the wreathe shall wear
On your triumphant brow:
Rejoice in hope, rejoice with me,
We shall from all our fins be free.

Then let us gladly bring
Our facrifice of praise,
Let us give thanks and sing,
And glory in his grace;
Rejoice in hope, rejoice with me,
We shall from all our sins be free.

HYMN LXXI.

Isaiah, Chap. 12.

- Thee, my Lord, (thou then shalt fay)
 Thee will I for ever praise.
- Tho' thy wrath against me burn'd,
 Thou dost comfort me again:
 All thy wrath aside is turn'd,
 Thou hast blotted out my fin.
- Jefus my falvation is,

 Hence my doubts, away my fears;

 Jefus is become my peace.
- 4 Jah, Jehovah, is my Lord,
 Ever merciful and just:
 I will lean upon his word,
 I will on his promise trust.
- Just in righteousness divine:

 He is my triumphal song,

 All he has, and is, is mine.
 - Water from falvation's well,

 Praise shall your gled tongues employ,
 While his streaming grace ye feel,

- Each, to each, ye then shall fay,
 Sinners, call upon his name,
 O rejoice to see his day,
 See it, and his praise proclaim.
- Glory to his name belongs,
 Great, and wonderful, and high:
 Sing unto the Lord your fongs,
 Cry, to every nation cry.
- Wonderous things the Lord hath done,

 Excellent his name we find:

 This to all mankind is known:

 Be it known to all mankind.
- If rael's Holy One is he!

 Give him thanks, rejoice and fing,
 Great he is, and dwells in thee.
- While eternal ages roll, God delights in man to dwell, Soul of each believing foul.

HYMN LXXII.

He that believeth, Shall not make hafte.

- Jefus, to us the promise teal,
 Our haste of unbelief subdue,
 And bid our flutt'ring hearts be still.
- That power which stopp'd the mid-day sun,
 Turn'd back the tide, and chain'd the sea,
 Be in our rapid spirit shewr,
 And make us truly wait on thee.

- Arrest our nature's head-strong course
 (We would be poor, despis'd, forlorn)
 Baffle our skill, unnerve our force,
 Our carnal confidence o'erturn.
- Great helper of the friendless thou,
 Thou strength'ner of the feeble knees,
 O let our fouls before thee bow,
 And sink into a sweet distress.
- We cannot see without thy light,
 Without thy light we would not see:
 We have no wisdom, help or might,
 But Lord, our eyes are unto thee:
- 6 O let us not presume to take

 The matter out of thy great hand:
 Who can the Rock of ages shake?

 The sure foundation still shall stand-
- 7 Let others rush with trembling haste, With eager wrath thy cause desend, Our soul is on thy promise cast, And lo! we calmly wait the end,
- The tott'ring ark shall never sall,
 It never shall to Dagon stoop:
 Thy kingdom ruleth over all.
- 9 Stedfast our anchor is, and sure,
 It enters now within the veil;
 Thy church, immoveably secure,
 Desies the powers of earth and hell.

Part the fecond.

OME, O thou greater than our heart,

And make thy faithful mercies known:

The mind which was in thee impart,

Thy conffant mind in us be shown,

- It worketh not thy righteousness:
 In patience let us wait on thee,
 And quietly our souls possess.
- Jesu, to whose supreme command,
 All things in heaven, earth, hell, submit:
 Upon us lay thy mighty hand,
 And self shall sink beneath thy seet.
- Thee, only Thee refolv'd to know,
 The Lamb for finners crucified,
 A world to fave from endless woe.
- Take us into thy people's rest,
 And we from our own works shall cease;
 With thy meek spirit arm our breast,
 And keep our minds in perfect peace.
- On thee the Father's fav'rite Son,
 Thee our great King, gone up on high,
 Firm on thine everlasting throne,
- The Lord is King, Messiah reigns!
 'Till Satan, sin, and all thy foes,
 And death, the last of all, be slain.
- O let our eyes behold thee near!
 Hallen to make our heaven compleat,
 Appear, our glorious God, appear!

Part the Third.

Our fouls upon thy truth we stay,
Accomplish now thy faithful Word,
And give, O give us all

- 19 O let us all join hand in hand,
 Who feek redemption in thy blood,
 Fast in one mind and spirit stand,
 And build the temple of our God.
- Our wild unruly passions bind,
 Tame the old Adam in our foul,
 And make us of one heart and mind.
- The winds shall cease, the waves subside:
 We all shall praise our common Lord,
 Our Jesus, and Him crucissed.
- Send down thy mild, pacific dove:
 We all shall then in one agree,
 And breathe the Spirit of thy love.
- Delightful leffon of thy grace;
 One undivided Christ proclaim,
 And jointly glory in thy praise.
- 24 O let us take a softer mould,
 Blended and gather'd into thee,
 Under one Shepherd make one fold,
 When all is love and harmony.
- 25 Regard thine own eternal prayer,
 And fend a peaceful answer down;
 To us thy Father's name declare,
 Unite, and perfect us in one.
- That God hath fent thee from above,
 When thou art feen in us below,
 And every foul displays thy love.

Part the Fourth.

- THE Lord is King, and earth submits,
 Howe'er impatient, to his sway,
 Between the cherubim he firs
 And makes his restless foes obey.
- 28 All pow'r is to our Jefus given,
 O'er earth's rebellious fons he reigns,
 He mildly rules the hofts of heaven,
 And hold the powers of hell in chains.
- Beyond his chain he cannot go, Our Jesus shall stir up his pow'r And soon avenge us of our soe.
- Jesus shall his great arm reveal,
 Jesus, the woman's conquiring seed;
 Tho' now the serpent bruise his heel,
 Jesus shall break the serpent's head.
- 31 The enemy his tares hath fown,
 But Christ shall shortly root them up,
 Shall cast the dire accuser down,
 And disappoint his children's hope:
- 32 Shall still the proud Philistine's noise, Battle the sons of unbelief, Nor long permit them to rejoice, But turn their triumph into grief.
- Scatter thy foes, victorious king,
 And Gath and Askelon shall mourn,
 And all the sons of God shall sing;
- Of him that fits upon the throne,
 And earth and heav'n conspire to praise,
 Jehovah, and his conquiring Son.

HYMN LXXIII.

Rev. ii. 1, &c. Unto the angel of the Church of Ephefus.

- Thou who dost the churches bear,
 The stars in thy right-hand uphold,
 Who walkest now with jealous care
 Amidst the candlessicks of gold.
- 2 Poor guilty abject worms, to thee
 In our declining state we call,
 See thy degenerate people, see,
 Nor let our tott ring Sion fall.
- Our works of faith thou once didft know, Our patient hope, and lab'ring love: We would not bear thy Romish foe, We dar'd that antichrist remove.
- We tried him by the written word,
 Thro' all his fnares and fetters broke,
 As Satan's Successor abhori'd,
 And cast away his iron yoke.
- Him and his god, and fin and death,
 We more than conquer'd thro' thy name;
 The witnesses resign'd their breath,
 And clasp'd their hands amidst the slame.
- 6 For their dear suffering Saviour's fake, Immoveable the champions stood, Nor fainted at the rack, or stake, For t water'd all the church with blood.
- Yet, O how quickly, Lord hast thou,
 Whereof thy people to reprove!
 Fallen, alas! thou feest us now,
 We now have left our former love.

- Sour wine with water mixt, our gold
 Is dim, our shipwreck'd faith is dead;
 No more our tokens we behold,
 Our martyrs all to heaven are sled.
- O could we call to mind the grace,
 The glorious grace from which we fell;
 Live o'er again the antient days,
 And do the work thou lov'ft fo well!
- O that we might thro' thee repent,
 And timely turn to thee and live!
 So shall thy grace our doom prevent;
 Thou would'st abundantly forgive.
- Our candlesticks far off remove, And fix th' unalterable doom, O let us weep, believe, and love.
- Yet once again our church restore, Shew us thy grace is over all, And lift us up to fall no more.

HYMN LXXIV.

Rev. iii. 1, 2, &c. To the angel of the church in Sardis.

- Thou whose eyes run to and fro,
 Thro' earth, and every creature see,
 What is it which thou dost not know?
 All things are manifest to thee.
- Thou hast the spirits, seven and one,
 Thou hast the stars in thy right-hand,
 And all our works to thee are known:
 How shall we in thy judgment stand!

- Thou know'st we take thy name in vain,
 While dead in trespasses we live,
 Thee for our Lord we falsely claim,
 While to the world our hearts we give.
- A powerless form, a lifeless found,
 Our works as vanity are light;
 Wanting alas! they all are found,
 And worse than nothing in thy fight.
- And cherish the last spark of grace, Strengthen the things that yet remain, And call to mind the antient days.
- Surely we did thy faith receive,
 We heard with joy the gospel word:
 O let us now repent and live,
 And watch to apprehend our Lord.
- Before thy sudden judgment come,
 And watch, and pray, and never cease,
 Till thou repeal our threatning doom.

HYMN LXXV.

Rev. fii. 14. &c. Unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans.

- MEN to all that God hath faid,
 Witness divine, the just and true,
 Who wast before the worlds were made,
 Whose being no beginning knew.
- With guilty felf-condemning fear,
 With humble felf-abasing shame,
 Thy Spirit's dreadful charge we hear,
 Nor dare throw off the imputed blame.

- God of unspotted purity,
 Us, and our works, canst thou behold?
 Justly we are abhor'd by thee,
 For we are neither hot nor cold.
- We call thee Lord, thy faith profess,
 But do not from our hearts obey,
 In fost Laodicean rest,
 We sleep our useless lives away.
- We live in pleasures, and are dead,
 In search of same and wealth we live,
 Commanded in thy steps to tread,
 We sometimes seek, but never strive.
- 6 A lifeless form we still retain,
 Of this we make our empty boast,
 Nor know the name we take in vain,
 The power of godliness is lost.
- The power we daringly deny,
 A fancied good, a madman's dream;
 The truth itself we deem a lie;
 The promis'd Holy Ghost blaspheme.
- 8 How long, great God, have we appear'd
 Abominable in thy fight!
 Better we had never heard
 Thy word, or feen the gofpel light.
- Better we had never known
 The way to heaven thro' faving grace,
 Than basely in our lives disown,
 And slight and mock thee to thy face.
- Than feem to ferve thee without zeal,
 Less guilty, if with those of old
 We worship'd Thor and Woden still.

To Sodom and Gomorrab prove,
Than us, who cast our shield away,
And trample on thy richer love.

Part the Second.

- Thee with unhallow'd lips we claim,
 A lukewarm, worse than heathen race.
- Are rich, and full, and need no more,
 Nor know that we are wretched found
 With thee, and bare, and blind, and poor.
- O let us our own works forfake,
 Ourselves, and all we have deny,
 Thy condescending counsel take,
 And come to thee pure gold to buy,
- And make the buyer rich indeed;
 Adorn us in the milk white veft,
 And over us thy mantle spread.
- Our fins are cover'd all by thee,
 No longer doth our shame appear;
 Salvation in thy light we see.
- Touch'd by an unction from above,
 Our eyes are open'd to perceive
 The mystery of redeeming love,
 The death by which alone we live.
- The faith that purges every stain,
 The faith that purges every stain,
 The faith that always works by love.

- The things belonging to our peace,
 And timely meet thee in thy way
 Of judgments, and our fins confess:
- With filial awe revere the rod,
 And turn with zealous haste and run
 Into the out-stretch'd arms of God!

Part the third.

- S AVIOUR of all, to thee we bow;

 And own thee faithful to thy word;

 We hear thy voice, and open now

 Our hearts to entertain our Lord.
- Delight in what thyfelf hast given,
 On thine own gifts and graces feast,
 And make the contrite heart thy heaven.
- Our facrifice of praise approve,

 And treasure up our gracious tears,

 That rest in thy redeeming love.
- 24 Beneath thy shadow let us sit,
 Call us thy friends, and love, and bride,
 And bid us freely drink and eat
 Thy dainties and be satisfied.
- And eat thy flesh, and drink thy blood;

 Jesu, thy blood is drink indeed,

 Jesu, thy flesh is angel's food.
- Faith makes thy fulness all our own.

 We feed upon thee in our hearts,

 And find that heaven and thou art one.

K 3

- 27 An heaven begun on earth we feel,
 Who conquer in the glorious strife;
 And pass o'er fin, and earth, and hell,
 Triumphant to eternal life.
- We shall from thee receive above.

 This the reward of conquest this,

 The crown of all victorious love.
- As thou the dreadful fight hast won,
 And wearest now th' immortal wreathe
 And sittest on thy Father's throne.
- And conquer in thy mighty name,

 To claim the kingdom as their right,

 Their fufferings, and their crown the fame.
- Shall triumph in thy victory,

 And on thy glorious throne fit down,

 And reign in endless bliss with thee.

HYMN LXXVI.

The Spirit and the Bride fay, Come!

Joyful found of gospel grace!
Christ shall in me appear,
I, even I, shall see his face,
I shall be holy here.
This heart shall be his constant home.
I hear his Spirit's cry:
Surely, he saith, I quickly come,
He saith, who cannot lie.

- On him my foul relies:

 My foul on wings of eagles borne,
 Shall fly and take the prize.

 The glorious crown of righteousness
 To me reach'd out I view,
 Conq'ror thro' him I foon shall seize,
 And wear it as my due.
- I now exult to fee,

 My hope is full, (O bleffed hope)

 Of immortality:

 My flutt'ring fpirit fatigues my breast

 And swells and spreads abroad,

 And pants for everlasting rest,

 And struggles into God.
- I feel and know him now in part,
 His love my heart constrains,
 Its near approach expands my heart,
 And fills with pleasing pains.
 He visits now the house or clay,
 He shakes his future home:
 O would'st thou, Lord, on this glad day,
 Into thy temple come!
- With me I know, I feel thou art,
 But this cannot fuffice,
 Unlefs thou plantest in my heart
 A constant paradife.
 My earth thou waterest from on high,
 But make it all a pool:
 Spring up O well, I ever cry,
 Spring up within my foul.
- 6 Come, O my God, thyfelf reveal,
 Fill all this mighty void,
 Thou only canst my spirit fill;
 Come, O my God, my God.

Fulfil, fulfil my large defires, Large as Infinity; Give, give me all my foul requires, All, all that is in thee!

HYMN LXXVII.

A Prayer for persons joined in fellowship.

- RY us O God, and fearch the ground Of ev'ry finful heart,
 Whate'er of fin in us is found,
 O bid it all depart.
- When to the right or left we stray,
 Leave us not comfortless,
 But guide our feet into the way
 Of everlasting peace.
- 3. Help us to help each other, Lord, Each other's crofs to bear; Let each his friendly aid afford, And feel his brother's care.
- 4 Help us to build each other up,
 Our little flock improve;
 Increase our faith, confirm our hope,
 And persect us in love.
- Let us in all things grow,
 Till thou hast made us free indeed,
 And spotless here below.
- 6 Then, when the mighty work is wrought, Receive thy ready bride,
 Give us in heaven a happy lot,
 With all the fanctified.

H Y M N LXXVIII.

The Same.

- J ESU, united by thy grace, And each to each endear'd, With confidence we feek thy face, And know our prayer is heard.
- And bear thine easy yoke,

 A band of love, a threefold cord

 Which never can be broke.
- 3 Make us into one spirit drink, Baptize into thy name, And let us always kindly think, And sweetly speak the same.
- 4 Touch'd by the load-stone of thy love, Let all our hearts agree, And ever tow'rd each other move, And ever move tow'rd thee.
- To thee inseparably join'd,
 Let all our spirits cleave,
 O may we all the loving mind
 Which was in thee receive.
- This is the bond of perfectness,

 Thy spotless charity;
 Olet us still, we pray, posses

 The mind that was in thee.
- 7 Grant this, and then from all below, Infenfibly remove; Our fouls their change shall scarcely know, Made perfect first in love.

- With ease our souls through death shall glide.
 Into their paradise,
 And thence on wings of angels ride
 Triumphant through the skies.
- Yet when the fullest joy is given, The same delight we prove, In earth, in paradise, in heaven, Our all in all is love,

H Y M N LXXIX.

Entering into the Congregation.

- Let thy falvation roll,
 Water, replenish, and o'erflow
 Every believing foul.
- Us weary finners take:

 Jesus, fulfil thy gracious word,

 For thy own mercy's sake.
- 3 Turn back our nature's rapid tide,
 And we shall flow to thee,
 While down the stream of time we glide
 To our eternity.
- 4 The well of life to us thou art,
 Of joy the swelling flood:
 Wasted by thee with willing heart
 We swift return to God.
- We foon shall reach the boundless sea, Into thy fulness fall, Be lost, and swallow'd up in thee, Our God, our all in all.

H Y M N LXXX.

Waiting for the Promise.

Remember us for good,
O fulfil his faithful word,
And hear his fpeaking blood.
Give us that for which he prays:
Father, glorify thy Son,
Shew his truth, his power, and grace,
And fend THE PROMISE down!

True and faithful Witness, thou
O Christ, the Spirit give:
Hast thou not receiv'd him now,
That we might now receive?
Art thou not our living head?
Life to all thy Limbs impart,
Shed thy love, thy Spirit shed
In every waiting heart.

3 Holy Ghost, the Comforter,
The gift of Jesus, Come!
Glows our heart to find thee near,
And swells to make thee room,
Present with us, thee we feel:
Come, O come, and in us be,
With us, in us, live and dwell
To all eternity.

HYMN LXXXI.

Little Children, love one another.

Meek, lamb-like Son of God,
Bid our unruly passions cease,
Extinguish'd with thy blood.

- 2 Rebuke the seas, the tempest chide
 Our stubborn wills controul,
 Beat down our wrath, root out our pride,
 And calm our troubled soul.
- 3 Subdue in us the carnal mind,
 Its enmity destroy,
 With cords of love th' old Adam bind,
 And melt him into joy,
- And in our inward parts

 Let kindness sweetly write her law,

 Let love command our hearts.
- Jefus the crucified,
 What hast thou done our hearts to gain
 Languish'd, and groan'd, and died.
- Who would not purfue the way
 Where Jesu's tootsteps shine:
 Who would not own the pleasing sway
 Of charity divine?
- Saviour look down with pitying eyes,
 Our jarring wills controul,
 Let cordial, kind affections rife,
 And harmonize the foul.
- 8 Thee let us feel benignly near
 In all thy foftning powers,
 The founding of thy bowels hear,
 And answer thee with ours.
- O let us find the antient way
 Our wond'ring foes to move,
 And force the heathen world to fay,
 "See how these Christians love!"

HYMN LXXXII.

At the parting of Christian Friends.

- B LEST be the dear uniting love, Which would not let us part: Our bodies may far off remove, We still are join'd in heart.
- 2 Join'd in one spirit to our head, Where he appoints we go, And still in Jesu's footsteps tread, And do his works below.
- O let us ever walk in him, And nothing know beside, Nothing desire, nothing esteem, But Jesus crucified.
- To his belov'd embrace,

 Expect his fulness to receive,

 And grace to answer grace.
- While thus we walk with Christ in light, What shall our fouls disjoin? Souls which himself vouchsafes t'unite In fellowship divine.
- Me all are one who him receive,
 And each with each agree,
 In him, the One, the Truth we live,
 Bleft point of unity!
- 7 Partakers of the Saviour's grace,
 The fame in mind and heart,
 Nor joy, nor grief, nor time, nor place,
 Nor life, nor death can part,

8 But let us hasten to the day,
Which shall our slesh restore,
When death shall all be done away,
And bodies part no more.

H Y M N LXXXIII.

The Love-feaft.

- Christ to praise in hymns divine:
 Give we all with one accord,
 Glory to our common Lord:
 Hands, and hearts, and voices raise,
 Sing as in the antient days:
 Antedate the joys above,
 Celebrate the feast of love.
- Let the purer flame revive,

 Let the purer flame revive,

 Such as in the martyrs glow'd,

 Dying champions for their God.

 We like them may live and love,

 Call'd we are their joys to prove,

 Sav'd with them from future wrath,

 Partners of like precious faith.
 - Sing we then in Jesu's name,
 Now as yesterday the same,
 One in every age and place,
 Full for all of truth and grace.
 We for Christ our master stand,
 Lights in a benighted land,
 We our dying Lord confess,
 We are Jesu's witnesses.
 - Witnesses that Christ hath died, We with him are crucified:

Christ hath burst the bands of death, We his quickning Spirit breathe, Christ is now gone up on high, (Thither all our wishes fly;) Sits at God's right hand above, There with him we reign in love,

Part the Second.

- Come, and visit abject man,
 Jesu, dear expected guest,
 Thou art bidden to the feast,
 For thyself our heart prepare,
 Come, and fit and banquet there.
- We are met in thy great name:
 In the midst do thou appear,
 Manifest thy presence here:
 Sanctify us, Lord, and bless,
 Breathe thy Spirit, give thy peace:
 Thou thyself within us move,
 Make our feast a feast of love.
- Let the fruits of grace abound,
 Let us in thy bowels found:
 Faith, and love, and joy increase,
 Temperance and gentleness:
 Plant in us thy humble mind;
 Patient, pitiful, and kind,
 Meek and lowly let us be,
 Full of goodness, full of thee.
- Make us all in thee complete,
 Make us all for glory meet:
 Meet t'appear before thy fight,
 Partners with the faints in light.

Call, O call us each by name, To the marriage of the Lamb; Let us lean upon thy breast, Love be there our endless feast.

Part the third.

- Let us join; ('tis God commands)—
 Let us join our hearts and hands,
 Help to gain our calling's hope,
 Build we each the other up.
 God his bleffings shall dispense,
 God shall crown his ordinance,
 Meet in his appointed ways,
 Nourish us with social grace.
- Faithfully his gifts improve,
 Carry on the earnest strife,
 Walk in holiness of life:
 Still forget the things behind,
 Follow Christ in heart and mind,
 Tow'rd the mark unwearied press,
 Seize the crown of righteousness.
- Faith by which our works are shewn;
 God it is who justifies,
 Only faith his blood applies:
 Active faith that lives within,
 Conquers hell, and death and sin,
 Sanctifies and makes us whole,
 Forms the Saviour in the soul.
- Sure falvation is its end,
 Heaven already is begun,
 Everlasting life is won;
 Only let us persevere,
 'Till we see our Lord appear,
 Never from the rock remove,
 Sav'd by faith which works by love.

Part the fourth.

- P ARTNERS of a glorious hope,
 Jointly let us rise and soices up,
 Jointly let us rise and sing,
 Christ our Prophet, Priest, and King:
 Monuments of Jesu's grace,
 Speak we by our lives his praise;
 Walk in him we have receiv'd,
 Shew we not in vain believ'd.
- While we walk with God in light,
 God our hearts doth still unite,
 Dearest fellowship we prove,
 Fellowship of Jesu's love;
 Sweetly each with each combin'd,
 In the bonds of duty join'd,
 Feels the cleansing blood applied,
 Daily feels that Christ hath died.
- Still, O Lord our faith increase,
 Cleanse from all unrighteousness;
 Thee th' unholy cannot see;
 Make, O make us meet for thee;
 Every vile affection kill,
 Root out every feed of ill,
 Utterly abolish sin,
 Write thy law of love within.
- Hence may all our actions flow,
 Love the proof that Christ we know,
 Mutual love the token be,
 Lord, that we belong to thee:
 Love, thine image love, impart;
 Stamp at on our face and heart;
 Only love to us be given,
 Lord we ask no other heaven.

HYMN LXXXIV.

The Communion of Saints.

- Faith's effectual fervent prayer,
 Hear, and our petitions feal,
 Let us now the answer feel:
 Mystically one with thee;
 Transcript of the Trinity,
 Thee let all our nature own,
 One in three and three in one.
- 2 If we now begin to be
 Partners with thy faints and thee,
 If we have our fins forgiven,
 Fellow-citizens of heaven:
 Still the fellowship increase;
 Knit us in the bond of peace,
 Join our new born spirits, join
 Each to each, and all to thine,
- Build us in one Body up,
 Call'd in one high calling's hope;
 One the spirit whom we claim,
 One the pure baptismal stame,
 One the faith and common Lord,
 One the Father lives, ador'd,
 Over, through, and in us all;
 God incomprehensible,
- 4 One with God, the fource of bliss, Ground of our communion this, Life of all that live below, Let thine emanations flow, Rise eternal in our heart:
 Thou our long-fought Eden art!
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Be to us what Adam lost,

Part the Second.

- Jefus takes our fins away!

 Jefus the foundation is,

 This shall stand and only this:

 Fitly fram'd in him we are,

 All the building rifes fair,

 Let it to a temple rife,

 Worthy him who fills the skies.
- 6 Husband of thy church below.
 Christ, if thee our Lord we know,
 Unto thee betroth'd in love,
 Always let us faithful prove.
 Never rob thee of our heart,
 Never give the creature part,
 Only thou posses the whole,
 Take our body, spirit, soul.
- Join'd to God in Spirit one:
 Wait we till the fpouse shall come,
 Till the Lamb shall take us home,
 For his heav'n the bride prepare,
 Solemnize our nuptials there.

Part the Third.

JOHN XVII. 20, &c.

HRIST our head, gone up on high,
Be thou in thy Spirit nigh,
Advocate with God, give ear,
To thine own effectual prayer;

Hear the founds thou once didst breathe,.
In thy days of sless beneath.
Now, O Jesus, let them be Strongly, echo'd back to thee!

- 9 We, O Christ, have thee receiv'd.
 Have the gospel word believ'd,
 Justly then we claim a share
 In thine everlasting prayer.
 One the Father is with thee,
 Knit us in like unity;
 Make us, O uniting Son,
 One, as thou and he are one.
- Thee he lov'd e'er time begun,
 Thee, the co-eternal Son,
 He hath to thy merit given
 Us th' adopted heirs of heaven.
 Thou hast will'd that we should rise,
 See thy glory in the skies.
 See thee by all heav'n ador'd,
 Be for ever with our Lord.
- Thou the Father fee'lt alone,
 Thou to us hast made him known;
 Sent from him we know thou art,
 We have found thee in our heart;
 Thou the Father hast declar'd:
 He is here our great reward,
 Our's his nature and his name;
 Thou art our's with him the same.
- Still, O Lord, (for thine we are)
 Still to us his name declare:
 Thy revealing spirit give,
 Whom the world cannot receive:
 Fill us with the Father's love,
 Never from our souls remove,
 Dwell in us, and we shall be.
 Thine to all eternity.

n brod andring as

Part the fourth.

- Percecting the faints below.

 Hear us who thy nature share,

 Who thy mystic body are;

 Join us, in one spirit join,

 Let us still receive of thine,

 Still for more, on thee we call,

 Thee, who fillest all in all.
- Closer knit to thee our head,
 Nourish us, O Christ, and feed;
 Let us daily growth receive,
 More and more in Jesus live;
 Jesus, we thy members are,
 Cherish us with kindest care;
 Of thy stesh and of thy bone;
 Love, for ever love thine own.
- Move, and actuate, and guide,
 Divers gifts to each divide:
 Plac'd according to thy will,
 Let us all our works fulfil;
 Never from our office move,
 Needful to the others prove,
 Use the grace on each bestow'd,
 Temper'd by the art of God.
- Touch'd with foftest sympathy,
 Kindly for each other care,
 Every member feels its share:
 Wounded by the grief of one,
 All the fuff'ring members groan;
 Honour'd if one member is,
 All partake the common blifs.
- Many are we now, and one, We who Jefus have put on;

There is neither bond nor free, Male nor female, Lord, in thee, Love, like death, hath all destroy'd, Render'd all distinctions void, Names, and sects, and parties fall: Thou, O Christ, art all in all.

Part the fifth.

- Man provokes you unto love:
 Saints and angels hear the call,
 Praise the common Lord of all;
 Him let earth and heaven proclaim,
 Earth and heaven record his name;
 Let us both in this agree,
 Both his own great family.
- Praise him with a tuneful tongue:
 (Sounds like yours we cannot raise.
 We can only lisp his praise)
 Us repenting sinners see,
 Jesus died to set us free;
 Sing ye over us forgiven,
 Shout for joy, ye hosts of heaven.
- Be it unto angels known,
 By the church what God hath doner
 Depths of love and wisdom see,
 In a dying Deity!
 Gaze, ye first-born seraphs gaze,
 Never can ye found his grace:
 Lost in wonder, look no more,
 Fall, and silently adore!
 - Ministerial spirits, know,
 Execute your charge below:
 You our Father hath prepar'd,
 Fenc'd us with a flaming guard:

Bids you all your ways attend, Safe convoy us to the end; On your wings our fouls remove, Waft us to the Realms above.

Part the fixth.

- APPY fouls! whose course is run,
 Who the fight of faith have won,
 Parted by an earlier death,
 Think you of your friends beneath?
 Have you your own flesh forgot,
 By a common ransom bought?
 Can death's interposing tide,
 Spirits one in Christ divide?
- No: For us you ever wait,
 'Till we make your blifs compleat,
 'Till your fellow-fervants come,
 'Till your brethren hasten home:
 You in paradife remain,
 For your testimony slain,
 Nobly who for Jesus stood,
 Bold to seal the truth with blood.
- Ever now your speaking cries,
 From beneath the altar rise,
 Loudly calls for vengeance due:
 " Come thou holy God, and true!
 - " Lord how long dost thou delay? "Come to Judgement, come away!
 - " Hasten, Lord, the general doom,
 - " Come away to judgment come!
- Wait, ye righteous spirits wait,
 Soon arrives your glorious state;
 Rob'd in white, a season rest,
 Blest, if not supremely blest;
 When the number is fulfill'd,
 When the witnesses are kill'd,

When we all from earth are driven, Then with us ye mount to heaven.

Jesu, hear, and bow the skies,
Hark, we all unite our cries;
Take us to thy heavenly home,
Quickly let thy kingdom come!
Jesu, come, the Spirit cries!
Jesu, come, the Bride replies!
One triumphant church above
Join us all in perfect love.

O thou dear fuffering Son of God	11	5
O my Lord, what must I do	27	18
O for an heart to praise my God —	28	19
O thou whom fain my foul would love	29	20
O that my load of fin were gone	32	22
O that thou would'st the heavens rend	33	23
O love I languish at thy stay	35	24
O love divine, what hast thou done	36	ib.
O draw me, Saviour, after thee	48	35
O God of Good th' unfathom'd fea	50	36
O for a thousand tongues to fing	63	44
O Jesu, source of calm repose	72	49
O heavenly king	7.4	.50
O what shall I do	ib.	51
O God of my falvation hear	75	52
Omnipotent Lord	78	54
O almighty God of love	84	59
